ORATORS POUR OUT PRAISE IN
TRUMAN BOOMMICHIGAN WILL GO
DEMOCRAT, SAYS
SEN. MYERS

(By The Associated Press)

Democratic orators, looking ahead to the 1948 election, praised President Truman last night as a "great president" and tore into the Republicans with charges of bungling and promise-breaking.

Senator Myers (D-Pa.) at Detroit, Senator Kilgore (D-WVa.) at Omaha and Gael Sullivan, executive director of the Democratic National Committee, at Boston, poured it on with as much vigor as though the presidential election were next month instead of next year.

The speeches were part of the continuing "Jefferson Day" series of meetings designed to raise funds and arouse fervor for candidates of the party of Thomas Jefferson, whose birthday was last month.

Last night's speakers went about it as follows—

Myers predicted that "if President Truman agrees to run" for reelection, Pennsylvania and Michigan will go Democrat.

Republicans Cause Chaos

"It's a peculiarly wonderful thing about America that in times of crisis, we have always been able to turn to the men in whom we could put our trust in leading us through to a better America. Right now, Harry Truman is that man," Myers continued.

Myers on the Republicans:

"The mission of the Republican party, now that it is in control of Congress, is to sow such chaos and confusion into our national economy as to invite a thoroughgoing dislocation, and once that happens, then the Republicans would scream, 'Look what Truman did.'"

"The Republican party, with the aid of a small minority of reactionary Democrats, succeeded last year in torpedoing President Truman's cautious and sensible reconversion program. It admits now that prices are outrageously high.

"So what is the Republican party doing about it? It is lowering taxes for the rich."

"Great Peacemaker"

Kilgore on President Truman: "Our great president is ably carrying out his pledge to x x x in all cases from day to day x x x what seems to me to be for the welfare of all of our people."

"President Truman has offered the nation a sound, progressive program."

"The Republicans made a great many foolish and lofty promises last fall. In an effort to win votes, they promised a great many things they cannot deliver. The Republicans fooled a great many people last fall, but they aren't fooling them today."

Sullivan on Mr. Truman: "President Harry S. Truman, president of all the American people."

Shoppers See
Possible Drop
In Food Costs

Chicago, May 3 (AP)—Home-makers with strained household budgets today could see a possibility of lower food prices within a few weeks or months.

Some raw food prices are lower this month, compared with recent peaks. This might have little immediate effect at the consumer level but could be expected to show up there within one to three months, depending upon length of processing and distribution.

Among 10 major raw food commodities at Chicago markets as of May 1, all but corn were sharply below their recent peaks. Corn was definitely higher than at the start of the new year.

Wheat, butter, lamb, veal calves, and choice beef cattle were below their levels of around Jan. 2.

Other cattle, hogs, eggs, whole-sale meats, and poultry were about the same as Jan. 2, after having been higher in the previous four-month period.

Cotton was higher, however, and the Associated Press whole-sale commodity price index—which includes other items as well as farm products—was higher than four, six and 12 months ago.

Corn, a basic food for livestock and poultry and supplying human needs, was $1.90 a bushel for No. 2 yellow on March 27, but was $1.65 1/2 last Thursday. It was $1.37 around the start of the year when supplies were heavier, and around $1.46 six months and a year ago.

Quality eggs hit 56 to 59 1/2 cents a dozen Oct. 10 and were 44 to 45 Thursday. They were 40 to 43 Jan. 2, 46 to 54 Nov. 1, and 35 1/2 to about 36 a year ago.

Butter, which was 87 cents a pound on the October 10 record date, was down to 60 Thursday, compared with 74 1/2 at the year's start, 75 six months ago, and 46 (not counting a 15-cent government subsidy) a year ago.

MICHIGAN PENAL
REFORMS URGEDSenate Committee Plan
Would Abolish Model
Corrections System

Lansing, May 3 (AP)—Sweeping changes in the state's penal system were recommended today by the Republican majority of the Senate prison investigation committee.

The majority report, by Senators G. Elwood Bonine, Vandall, and Elmer R. Porter, Blissfield, would virtually abolish Michigan's so-called "model" corrections systems.

The senators proposed substitution of a full-time three-man corrections commission for the present five-man, policy-making part-time board.

The third committee member, Senator Stanley Nowak of Detroit, Democratic floor leader, filed a strong dissenting report, declaring the majority's principal recommendations would "set Michigan back generations" in the field of prison reform.

Besides ousting the present commission, the majority recommendations would:

Return control of prisons to the individual wardens.

Allow the governor to appoint a fourth member to become chairman of the present three-man parole board.

Allow parole violators to make court appeal against return to prison, and allow inmates to appeal parole refusals to the corrections commission.

The majority report declared the present commission did not have time to keep close supervision over prison affairs. The report further charged the present three-man parole board has too heavy a load to handle.

ALEMAN GIVEN
OVATION BY U. N.Mexican President Sees
Duties In Checking
"Steeds Of War"

New York, May 3 (AP)—President Miguel Aleman of Mexico declared today before an extraordinary session of the United Nations assembly that "one of the sacred obligations of the United Nations is to check the steeds of war."

Aleman, who was given a tremendous ovation by the delegates of 55 nations, said that among the U. N.'s "undefeatable duties is that of strengthening the foundations of a universal community in which the provocations to war—namely, insecurity, ignorance, poverty and hunger—may forever disappear."

Speaking in Spanish, the Mexican president said that international cooperation was the only way to prevent mankind from falling into another world conflict that would wipe out present civilization.

"Only this cooperation can succeed in overcoming the difficulties that have arisen at the close of the war and must, finally, convert into a state of peace—true peace—the uncertain period in which we have been laboring for several months."

"The sole guarantee for maintaining peace," Aleman said, is the "fulfillment of the obligations contracted by nations, within a generous program of international cooperation."

Both Sides Nearing
Exhaustion In China
Civil War Struggle

San Francisco, May 3 (AP)—The founder of China's mass education movement said today that both sides in the Chinese civil war are nearing exhaustion.

Dr. James Yen, who arrived yesterday, told a press conference that soldiers are deserting from both government and Communist armies, simply refusing to fight.

"No problem ever has been settled in China by fighting," said the slight, 54-year-old educator, adding:

"Both the government and the Communists realize increasingly that the party that does the most for the people will win in the end."

"What the people want most is peace and a full rice bowl."

He said Chinese rice bowls never will be filled until farmers, who make up 85 per cent of the population, can raise better crops.

Sigler And Jeffries

Air Transport Ship

Detroit, May 3 (AP)—Gov. Sigler and Mayor Edward Jeffries will head a group of city and state officials Sunday in christening ceremonies at Willow Run Airport for the "Flagship Michigan," described by American Airlines officials as "the fastest, the most luxurious air transport in the world."

Monday, the plane, a four-engined Douglas DC-6 flagship, will begin two-hour and 15-minute flight between Detroit and New York City.

Chicago, May 3 (AP)—Captain Donald Aldrich, daring Marine air ace who shot down 21 Japanese planes in Pacific warfare, was killed today when his Navy Corsair fighter plane overturned at a South Side airport.

Aldrich, a Chicagoan, was trapped in the Corsair's cockpit when it overturned after he attempted a landing on a small commercial field.

LIFT OF $5.14
IN TELEPHONE
PAY PROPOSEDGOVERNMENT TRIES
TO END 27-DAY
DEADLOCK

Washington, May 3 (AP)—The government was reported tonight to have proposed a "package" raise of $5.14 a week to settle the long distance part of the telephone strike, but the American Telephone and Telegraph company turned thumbs down on any such formula.

George S. Dring, A. T. and T. vice president, would not acknowledge that there was a government proposal before the strike negotiators, but he told a reporter:

"In case of any proposition of that kind, the company would be opposed."

"We strongly believe that a settlement should be reached by free collective bargaining between the company and the union on the basis of all the facts. It is for that reason that we would be opposed to any such proposition by the government."

Key Unit Covered
On the question of what actually had been proposed—or whether anything had been put forward at all—Dring would say only that "you'll have to ask the conciliation service about that."

The formula had been reported earlier by a person in close touch with the negotiations as including: 1. A $4.50 average weekly wage increase, the exact sum to be worked out between the union and company for each city.

2. "Fringe" settlements, involving vacation, pension and other provisions included in an agreement initiated by company and union officials April 10, approximating another 40 cents a week.

If accepted, it would affect only the 20,000 long distance workers directly, but this group is considered the key unit of the Bell System for two reasons.

1. The long distance settlement reached last year averted a threatened coast-to-coast tie-up; and

2. Settlements reached by other Bell System companies might mean little if long distance pickets still paraded in front of company offices, and whose lines other employees might refuse to cross.

The new proposal would work out at 11 1/4 cents an hour.

Immediately after the proposal was handed to union and company negotiators, the four-hour conference was recessed. Then Manno and Margolis announced that they had imposed a secrecy rule on the participants.

NEW PROPOSALS URGED
Detroit, May 3 (AP)—Michigan Bell Telephone Co. and its 18,000 striking employees were urged by federal conciliators today to submit new wage proposals in an effort to end the 27-day (Saturday) deadlock.

The company's only offer to date was a $2 to $4 weekly increase proposed April 30 and promptly rejected by striking members of the Michigan Federation of Telephone Employees (Ind.).

The unions have slashed their original $12 weekly wage demand to $6. However, an estimate of 6,000 plant workers, members of Local 43, MFTFE, filed a $5 area adjustment proposal atop this to

Floods Are Menace
On Tittabawassee
River At Midland

Midland, Mich., May 3 (AP)—After creeping up over flood warning stage today, the Tittabawassee River leveled off following the release of excess water at the Sanford and Edenville power dams.

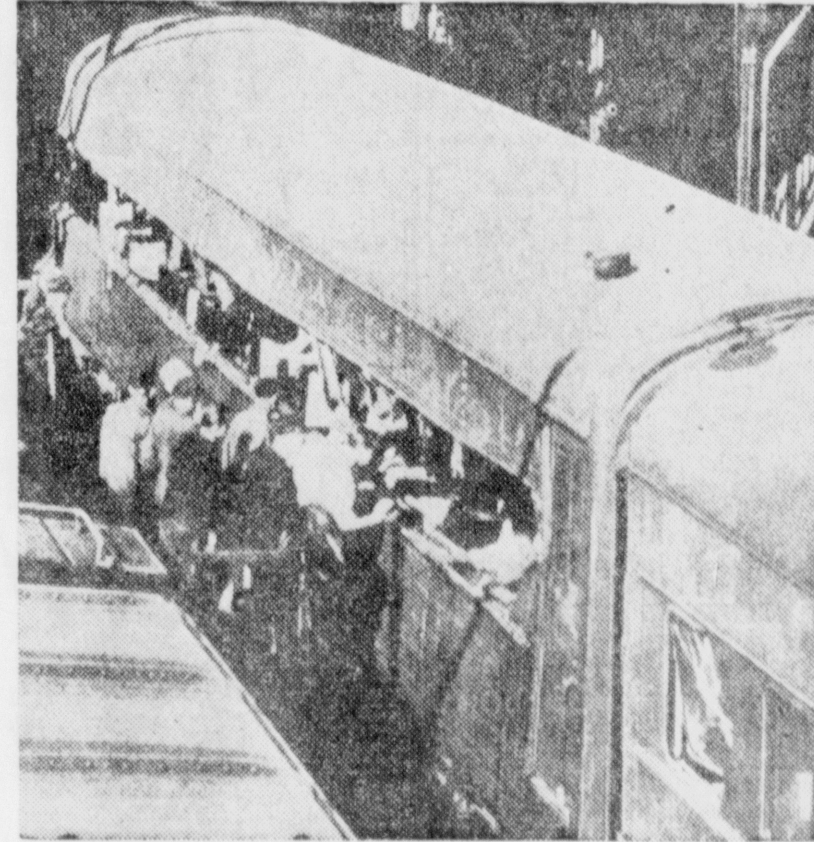

Operators of the two dams began a cutback in release of the overflow when a noon reading Saturday showed the river had been stationary for two hours at 16.4 feet, a fraction below this year's previous high of 16.5.

It was the third time this spring the turbulent stream has gone over the flood warning mark. Flood stage is 18 feet.

The Sanford dam had been spilling 18 feet of water and the Edenville dam 17 feet before the cutback began, enough to reduce the flood danger if no more rain fell.

More than two inches of rain here Thursday sent the river up 11.4 feet in 10 hours, flooding the $85,000 Emerson Park softball stadium.

Midland police reported the Chippewa River, which empties into the Tittabawassee, here, overflowed its banks onto M-20 a mile west of Midland, but said the water was not deep enough to warrant closing the highway.

Truman Indicates
Possible Approval
Of Mild Labor Bill

BY JACK BELL

Washington, May 3 (AP)—A Democratic congressional official said today President Truman has told party legislative lieutenants he would veto the labor bill as passed by the House but is leaving the gate ajar for possible approval of a milder version now before the Senate.

The president's reported view that it may be possible to work out legislation he could accept apparently has spurred Senate Democratic leaders in fighting amendments which Mr. Truman obviously regards as too stringent.

In this effort, however, they were said to have no advance commitment that the President will take the measure even in the form in which the Senate labor committee put it. That form already has been toughened by the Senate's 60 to 28 adoption of an amendment forbidding union coercion of workers in their choice of bargaining representatives.

The President was described as having said merely that while his mind was made up against the House bill, he could not pass in advance on individual sections of the Senate bill and obviously could make no final decision until he sees what comes out of compromise efforts between the House and Senate.

ARCTIC DEFENSE
GETS ATTENTIONArmy And Navy Prepare
For Winter Training
In Alaska

BY ELTON C. FAY
Washington, May 3 (AP)—The United States, its prime military attention focused on potential invasion routes over the Polar cap, is planning a second winter of Arctic troop training and special Arctic-operating naval ships.

The Army announced tonight that elements of an infantry division and troop carrier aircraft will engage in joint Arctic exercises in Alaska beginning next Nov. 1.

Gen. Jacob L. Devers, Army ground force commander, said that last winter's maneuvers convinced him that new emphasis must be placed on the use of "air transportable" foot soldiers in those areas.

The Army's announcement follows a Navy request to Congress yesterday for a construction program to include both submarines and surface ships, especially equipped for duty in ice-packed Arctic waters.

To start off that part of the program, the Navy proposes one submarine outfitted as an "Arctic picket boat" and a fast attack transport capable of ice-breaking navigation.

The Navy said the picket boat submarine could be used as "eyes and ears" to detect airplane movement and for other secret functions. This suggested the use of radar to extend the present comparatively limited scope of any land-based radar aircraft warning network that might be installed along the Alaskan-Canadian Arctic coast.

Six-Plane Michigan
Legion Group Flies
To Indianapolis, Ind.

Detroit, May 3 (AP)—Flying in a six-plane group, 20 Michigan American Legionnaires will set out for Indianapolis Sunday for the 11th annual aerial membership round-up by the Legion national aeronautics committee.

Heading the group is State Commander Earl F. Ganschow of Saginaw, who will carry 8,500 new membership cards as Michigan's contribution to the round-up.

Other Legion officials making the trip include State Adjutant Lisle H. Alexander of Plymouth and District Commanders James W. Scott of Grand Rapids and Hubert Beare of Springport.

U. S. Senator Owen Brewster of Maine will head the banquet speakers.

Counsel Bares
Nazi Plots To Weaken U.S.A.

Nuernberg, Germany, May 3 (AP)—A 20,000-word war crimes indictment charging 24 members of the giant I. G. Farben combine with making cartel arrangements "carefully designed to weaken the United States as an arsenal of democracy" was filed today with the American military tribunal.

Brig. Gen. Telford Taylor, chief counsel, presented the indictment setting out the successive steps the world's largest chemical company took to prepare Germany for war, and its role in waging war.

It accused the 24 men of sponsoring Hitler's war aims, and of using slave labor, mass murder and plundering of private properties to carry them out. Among the top officials indicted were Carl Krauch, chairman of the Farben supervisory board of directors; Hermann Schmitz, chairman of the managing board of directors, and Georg Von Schnitzler, chief of all foreign and domestic sales divisions.

At the height of its power the Farben combine controlled 400 firms in Germany and more than 500 throughout the world.

The indictment charged that Farben leaders used the cartels to carry on propaganda, espionage and fifth column activities outside Germany, and to weaken the efforts of the United States to aid Nazi-opposed democracies in the days before Pearl Harbor.

"Through cartel arrangements, Farben retarded the production within the United States of certain strategic products, including synthetic rubber, magnesium, synthetic nitrogen, tetrazene, alabrine and sulphur drugs," the indictment said.

The indictment said Farben had a cartel arrangement with the Aluminum Company of America and the Dow Chemical Co. which "greatly restricted" the production of magnesium in the United States, and prohibited exports to Europe except to Germany, and in small amounts to Britain, making Britain and the rest of Europe dependent on Germany.

FORD WORKERS
GO AFTER RAISESettlement Predicted
Near Pattern In Rest Of Big 3

Detroit, May 3 (AP)—The CIO United Auto Workers were poised today for wage negotiations with the Ford Motor company, last unsigned member of the automotive big three.

Betting in the industry was that they would settle somewhere in the neighborhood of an 11 1/2 cent pay increase plus six paid holidays, about a 15 cent overall equivalent.

This was the pattern set by General Motors Corp. and Chrysler Corp. in settlements reached April 25 and April 26 respectively.

However, the UAW-CIO has thrust a stubborn chin forward in the face of these agreements with insistence, in public at least, on a 23 1/2 cent wage boost and an old age pension system from Ford.

Both these demands fell by the wayside during protracted negotiations with Chrysler and the "quickie" settlement with General Motors.

Ford, where the average wage approximates $1.39 for 100,000 production workers, had the highest average rate among the big three until the 11 1/2 cent pattern boosted GM's rate to $1.42 for 220,000 hourly rated employees, and Chrysler's to $1.43 1/2 for 70,000 workers.

Observers hardly expected Ford to go above the 11 1/2 cent pattern which would boost its average to $1.50 1/2. A year ago it granted an 18 cent increase in comparison with the pattern of 12 1/2 cents.

Haymarket Riot
Observance Ends;
No Survivors Left

Chicago, May 3 (AP)—The annual observance of the notorious haymarket riot of May 4, 1886, will be officially ended tomorrow—time finally has run out for all the polemic survivors.

On that date, 176 policemen stormed into the west side haymarket district to quell a riotous demonstration over the slaying of a participant of an earlier labor demonstration. An assassin tossed a bomb into their ranks, killing seven and injuring 60 others.

Each year since then, the surviving officers have met at the old Des Plaines station to observe the occasion.

WHITES FIGHT
NEGROES, ONE
SLAIN, 11 HURTRACIAL UPRISING
QUELLED WITH TEAR GAS

BY AL DOPKIN

Fort Leavenworth, Kas., May 3 (AP)—The Army quelled a race riot in the disciplinary barracks in which one prisoner was killed and five guards and six prisoners injured today, finally forcing capitulation of 514 white prisoners who had defied a surrender ultimatum throughout the afternoon.

Earlier, 213 negro prisoners in another cell block surrendered after a night and morning of rioting and disorder that forced the Army to send to Kansas City for additional supplies of tear gas.

The task of clearing the white prisoners' cell block was completed at 6:20 p. m. No bodies were found, and only two of the prisoners required hospitalization—one a prisoner who previously had malaria, and another who was suffering from an old injury. Both conditions had been aggravated by the tear gas.

Cell Block Damaged

The rioting grew out of resentment of white prisoners at having to eat in the same mess hall with negroes and the smouldering discontent flared into disorder 48 hours ago. This broke into an open riot last night after three negro prisoners attacked a white man in the shower room.

Maj. Henry C. Trieler, public relations officer at Fort Leavenworth, said the prisoners had damaged cell block 6, the wing in which the white prisoners were confined, extensively, and that the men would be detained overnight in another block.

Major Trieler said the men involved in the riot ate their first meal since last night and left the mess hall at 8:30 p. m. tonight without disorder. They were under close guard.

The usual seating arrangement was in effect, with whites and negroes eating in the same room but at separate tables. The menu consisted of spaghetti and meatballs, spinach, cottage cheese and peach salad.

He said work would be resumed at the prison tomorrow by some prisoners whose records were good, and that a full work schedule would be resumed Monday. Barring unforeseen developments, he said, the barracks would be back to normal by Tuesday.

Drenched With Gas

Col. Graeme Parks, commandant of the barracks, was conducting an investigation tonight in an effort to segregate the ring leaders. Pleas for court martial proceedings would await completion of the investigation, he said. Officers from the Fifth Army headquarters at Chicago would assist in the inquiry.

Hundreds of tear gas shells were lobbed into the two cell blocks involved through the night before the negro prisoners heeded an ultimatum by Col. Parks to surrender or be drenched in an intensified gas barrage.

The white prisoners, in another cell block, ignored the ultimatum for six hours. When the break finally came at 4:15 this afternoon, Col. W. A. Drownes, supervisor of prisoners, instructed the men over a loudspeaker system to leave the block in groups of five, discard their clothing and report to a tier on a lower floor.

"Bring our your injured first," he instructed, "and if any of you

ROBBER CAUGHT AT GLADSTONE

Sheriff Miron Reports Confession In Kesler Store Burglary

Sheriff William E. Miron last night reported the arrest of George Shields, 28, of St. Jacques, on a warrant charging him with a burglary at the Kesler sport shop in Escanaba March 23. The sheriff said that Shields had signed a statement admitting the Escanaba robbery.

A watch, left at a roadside tavern in payment for a case of beer, started an investigation which implicated Shields in the burglary, Sheriff Miron said, and a warrant for the suspect was issued March 31. It was learned that Shields shipped out as a watchman on the lakes carrier E. L. Ford, but that he left the ship at Cleveland May 1. Shields was spotted in Escanaba Saturday as he was enroute to St. Jacques, where his father resides, and was taken in custody at Gladstone by the sheriff and state police, who aiding in tracing Shields when he left here to take employment on the lakes freighter.

Two watches, identified as part of the loot in the Kesler store burglary, have been recovered. In his confession, Shields stated that watches, rings, billfolds, cigarette lighters and other articles stolen at the store had been sold in Green Bay and Milwaukee.

June Depotsie, 14, Dies Here Yesterday

June Depotsie, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Depotsie of LaBranche, died at 3 a. m. yesterday in St. Francis hospital where she has been a surgical patient. Death was caused by a ruptured appendix.

Miss Depotsie was born May 24, 1933, at LaBranche, and was an eighth grade student in the Spalding township school at Powers.

Surviving are the parents, three brothers, Alfred Dwayne and Richard, and one sister, Judy.

The body was taken to the Boyle funeral home in Bark River in preparation for burial. Funeral services will be held at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday in the funeral home and at 9:30 a. m. Tuesday in St. Joseph's church in Foster City with the Rev. Fr. J. A. Ginski of Perronville officiating.

Burial will be in the family lot in Foster City cemetery.

in the future. Henry Boyle of Bark River, president of the Delta County Cancer Society, presided at the meeting.

Others for the permanent organization attending the meeting were Dr. Fred Hirn, Escanaba, president of the Delta Dental Society; Mrs. Ted McFadden, Correll area captain; Mrs. Earl Kaiser, Ensign area captain; and Mrs. J. E. Trombley, Gladstone area captain.

George Ruwitch, Escanaba, chairman of the cancer education fund drive which will open May 10, explained the progress that has been made in organizing the campaign, and a discussion of the drive program was held.

The local cancer society's first and principal objective will be to distribute booklets and other information as a part of its educational program. Purpose of the program is to encourage persons to seek examination as early as possible, so that cures may be more easily effected.

"Too many people are frightened by the very thought of cancer," said Mrs. Gilbert. "They are so frightened that they do nothing about it. What we want to do is to educate them to the point where they will be frightened enough to seek examination, with the assurance that 90 and 95 per cent of some types of cancer are curable if discovered early."

The funds to be raised in the county will be used locally to continue the educational work, and nationally for research to help stamp out a disease that kills one of every eight persons each year.

Patrol Boat Picks Up Illegal Fish Nets In Michigan

Capt. Charles Allers of the Michigan conservation department fish patrol boat No. 1 said yesterday afternoon that one gang of gill nets, without a license number marking on the buoys, and assumed to have been set by Wisconsin fishermen, had been discovered in Michigan waters.

The nets were found west of Chambers Island between Escanaba and Menominee and two or three miles within the Michigan territory. After docking here the patrol boat made arrangements to raise the nets and to care for them by drying them on a reel.

The patrol boat has been at Menominee for the past two days and was on its way to Escanaba when the nets were discovered. Here the patrol boat is at the municipal dock. Investigation of the case is continuing.

NAPOLEON J. LACHAPPELLE
Funeral services for Napoleon J. LaChapelle were held at a solemn requiem high mass Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Ann church. Rev. Fr. Sebastian Maier was celebrant of the funeral mass; Rev. Fr. Charles Syzula, deacon; and Rev. Fr. Thomas Ruppe, subdeacon.

The music of the mass was sung by the senior choir. At the offertory, "Jesu Salvator" was sung by Mrs. Thomas Tounignant and at the close of the service, Herbert Smith sang "De Profundis."

Burial was in St. Ann's cemetery. Pallbearers were five sons and one son-in-law of Mr. LaChapelle, Hector, Napoleon Jr., Adrian, Gilbert and Louis LaChapelle and Harry Schultz.

Those from out-of-town at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Adrian LaChapelle and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schultz, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Louis LaChapelle, Marinette; Miss Laura Jacobson, Gladstone; Mr. and Mrs. Hector LaChapelle and daughters, Clara and Gladys, Cornell; Arthur Hubert, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tessier, Mrs. Ruth Bruseau and Slavic Posephney, of Menominee.

Hiawathaland Festival To Present Fine Music

Fine music will be one of the feature attractions of the Hiawathaland Festival, which will be held in Escanaba July 3 to 6.

A massed chorus of more than three hundred voices will sing the Wedding Feast portion of Cole-ridge-Taylor's musical work, Hiawatha, based on Longfellow's well known poem, as the prelude to the historical spectacle which will be staged nightly at the Escanaba high school athletic field. According to Sam Ham, music chairman of the pageant committee, members of the Orpheus Choral club, church choirs, Escanaba high school and St. Joseph's school glee clubs, the barbershop quartets and other organizations will compose the chorus.

Instrumental music for the nightly pageant will be provided by a community orchestra now being organized by Albert Shomento, instrumental music director of the Escanaba city schools. Five string musicians from Kingsford have signified a desire to join the orchestra.

About nine high school and city bands will march in the parade that will be held on Friday, July 4, according to an announcement by Fred Johnson, parade chairman.

Street dancing will be held the nights of July 4 and 5 to the music of Ivan Kobasic's orchestra. The Kobasic orchestra will be augmented by a group of vocalists and entertainers.

Marinette County Road Man Retires

Marinette—Arndt Eklund, Marinette county highway commissioner since 1938 and a highway employee for 52 years, is retiring on June 1.

Eklund started in 1905 as a laborer, and in 1912 he was promoted to foreman. In 1920 he was named assistant commissioner and he was elevated to commissioner in 1938.

His father, the late Andrew Eklund, served as Marinette highway commissioner in the "sawdust days."

PRODUCTION OF GAS INCREASES

Over 6,000,000 Cu. Ft. Manufactured Here In January, '47

The monthly rate of gas production at the Escanaba gas department has increased 2,063,000 cubic feet, or 51.34 per cent in the three year period from January, 1944 to January 1947, a report from the municipal gas utility reveals.

The production in January this year was 6,081,000 cubic feet compared with 4,018,000 cubic feet three years ago.

The production rate has shown a steady increase during those years, with the sharpest jump coming the past year when more than 1,000,000 cubic feet of gas was produced in January, 1947 than in January, 1946.

A total of 33.19 pounds of coal were consumed to produce each 1,000 cubic feet of gas in January, 1947 as contrasted with 32.64 pounds of coal per 1,000 cubic feet three years ago. The 1947 rate, however, is slightly less than in January, 1945 and January 1946 when 33.39 and 33.32 pounds of coal were used per 1,000 cubic feet of gas produced, respectively.

To produce the record gas production in January of this year, a total of 106.9 tons of coal and 16,621 gallons of oil were consumed.

The municipal gas utility is now serving 2,628 customers, compared with 2,170 in January, 1947.

Labor Merger Developing

NO ONE really expected that the CIO and the AFL would reach agreement on the proposed merger of the two big labor organizations when their officials met in Washington Friday to discuss the proposal. They did not agree on how the merger should be achieved but they did agree that unity of the two organizations is a good idea.

Main stumbling blocks to the merger are the questions of unionization on the industrial level, instead of on the trade level, and executive control of the merged labor group. The AFL as the oldest of the labor organizations hesitates to divide its power with the militant leaders of the CIO group.

Because of the tremendous growth of the CIO under the industrial unionization principle as contrasted to the AFL's organization by trade unions, it is probable that the eventual merger will recognize industrial unionization. Under this plan all of the workers within an industry are organized in a single union.

Merger of the two groups, when ultimately accomplished, will eliminate jurisdictional strikes, which have proved so objectionable to recent years. It will not eliminate the abusive secondary boycott and sympathy strikes, however. On the contrary, this type of labor stratagems of American industry probably will increase unless effective legislation is adopted to prohibit it.

It is ironic, to say the least, that the AFL and CIO have brought together to consider their common problems when one looks that those problems, highlighted by the demand for legislative curbs on union abuses, have resulted to a considerable extent because of the bitter feud that existed between the two powerful American labor organizations.

Political Maneuvering

THE politically minded American people can hardly be blamed for looking with considerable suspicion upon the efforts of Jackson county, Missouri Democrats to shed the Pendergast label that has proved so embarrassing to them since Harry Truman became president of the United States. Jackson county is the home of President Truman and it was the Pendergast's vote stealing, racket ridden machine that started Harry Truman on a political career that finally led him, even though by accident, to the White House.

Main cause for suspicion of the latest effort to shed the Pendergast taint of Jackson county Democrats stems from the remarkable cooperation that the Missouri Democrats purists are getting from James M. Pendergast, who inherited the powerful political machine from his uncle, J. T. Pendergast.

The new leader of Jackson county Democrats is Henry A. Morris, World War II hero. The fact that Morris was named chairman of the county committee last August by the Pendergast label has proved very embarrassing to the national committee of the Democratic party because for the presidency in the 1948 election, Harry Truman, a product of the Pendergast machine.

The Democratic party can hardly remove the Pendergast taint from their candidate merely by reshuffling the Jackson county committee which will suspiciously appear to be under the Pendergast control.

A Worthwhile Activity

PLANS for the formation of the Escanaba Gun club, which will sponsor skeet and trapshooting activities in this area, are reported to be going ahead satisfactorily.

Skeet and trapshooting can become an important feature of the city's recreational program. Since this is a great hunting region, interest in shooting is always high. Besides promoting good sportsmanship, organized skeet and trapshooting has proved effective in teaching the safe handling of firearms. It is significant that in the 47 years this sport has been organized on a national scale, only one gun accident has occurred on club ranges.

Organization of the gun shooting sport is also of value to this community from the tourist business standpoint. Skeet and trapshooters are great travelers. They will go anywhere that a registered shoot is being held—Vandalia, O., Waukegan, Chicago and even Sun Valley. Formation of a club in Escanaba will bring more of these gun enthusiasts to the Upper Peninsula.

Union Coercion is Wrong

THE senate's approval of a provision in the general labor bill forbidding union coercion of workers is a forward step to protect the rights of individuals and to correct one of the glaring abuses of labor power.

The provision is designed to make it an unfair labor practice for a union or its agent to restrain or coerce workers in exercising their right to choose a union and to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choice.

This amendment, if enacted, will put labor unions on the same basis as employers, insofar as the rights of individual workers are concerned. Under existing laws, employers are prevented from interfering with the workers' rights to select their own collective bargaining representatives.

The rollcall in the senate on the amendment showed generous support from both the Republicans and Democrats with a final margin, 60 to 28, sufficient to override the anticipated presidential veto.

This division, however, may not result when the omnibus labor bill, of which the anti-coercion amendment is only one portion, comes up for final approval, and it is hardly likely to develop when an attempt is made to override the veto.

Congress may wind up with no labor legislation at all because of insistence to write everything in a single bill, in both though substantial majorities in both branches favor restrictions on labor abuses.

The Perch are Biting

THE perch are biting at Van's Harbor, and for many residents of Delta and Schoolcraft county that's more important news than the developments in the telephone strike, the discussions concerning the labor merger and the deliberations of the annual spring conference.

The annual spring perch run at Van's Harbor means several weeks of unparalleled fishing pleasure. When the perch bite at Van's Harbor, they really bite with gusto. The limit is 50 per person per day and even the least experienced fisherman encounters no trouble in reaching the limit when the perch run is on.

The start of the perch run, coming just when the smelt dipping season is ended, provides a good break to families striving to keep pace with the high cost of food, particularly meat. And cause for more optimism is the anticipated run of the walleyes in the next few weeks.

Yes, there's grand fishing in Delta county.

LIGHT SLAP FOR DRAFT DODGER

(Milwaukee Journal)

It would pain the well tailored and well fed Serge Rubinstein, no doubt, to leave his luxurious 5th ave. mansion for the rigors of a federal prison, even for a few months. Perhaps the Russian refugee with the Portuguese citizenship, the Cambridge education and the Midas touch would be at least mildly irritated by having to surrender $50,000 to the Uncle Sam whose long arm he has been trying to escape.

There is still no absolute guarantee that Rubinstein will be compelled to do either, although a federal court jury in New York has found him guilty of draft evasion and has sentenced him to two and one-half years in prison—plus a $50,000 fine. The clever fellow has slipped out of tighter spots than this. And nobody doubts for a second that he has the resources and legal talent at his command to exhaust every possibility of ultimate escape. If the worst comes, there is still the possibility of much earlier release on parole or for good behavior.

Mr. Rubinstein has indeed done pretty well for himself—to the tune of several millions—in the nine years he has been in the United States. He is well heeled, in spite of his piteous claims to deferment under selective service on the ground that he was almost "broke" and his family might starve if he had to leave his business to fight for the country that had treated him so generously.

Some have called Serge Rubinstein the Grover Bergdoll of World War II. That is the grossest sort of libel on the most notorious draft dodger in World War I, who was certainly no worse than a coward with some pro-German sympathies. His scruples, if he had any, whatever so elastic as to conform to his desires, his comfort and his profit under any stress. Plain prevarication to avoid military service would mean some sacrifice and possible danger, such as others were facing on his behalf—this would hardly tax such a conscience.

A few months in jail—if he goes—and a few thousand dollars of his money—if he pays! It will make patriots and veterans of this war see red when they think about it. Such a penalty, even if exacted to the full, will seem utterly inadequate for the offender and his offense.

The real thrill in planting a narcissus bulb comes when guessing if it will be a jonquil or an onion.

The average dream lasts about five seconds. No wonder we never get to sleep that fortune left us in a relative's will.

Answer: "Enclose" is not only in the accepted dictionaries, it is the preferred spelling in American usage, and it is the only spelling sanctioned by the United States Government Printing Office Style Manual.

Los Angeles: Is there any authority for

World Events Analyzed

BY MARQUIS CHILDS

Washington—This is a tale with a moral. In fact, it may have more than one moral.

Not long ago, the Navy decided to conduct secret submarine maneuvers in Alaskan waters. These maneuvers were so secret that not even the Army was told about them.

But the presence of the submarines in Arctic waters was reported to Army Intelligence in Alaska. For the moment, at least, it produced tremendous excitement. They might, officialdom thought, be Russian submarines. The mystery was soon cleared up, with some red faces all around.

Not the least interesting part of the story was the way in which the submarines were detected. At the outbreak of World War II, Alaska was pitifully unprepared. There was a very real threat that the Japanese might conquer the Alaskan mainland from bases established in the Aleutian chain. One of the defense measures taken by Alaska officials was to organize in Alaska territorial guard. Enrolled in this guard were many Eskimos who proved invaluable as scouts in the white wastes of the Arctic wilderness. They have powers of vision far beyond those of the white man. That is why they were able recently to sight the submarine periscopes and thereby disclose the Navy's highly secret maneuvers.

—ALASKA AT DISADVANTAGE—
Alaska's able governor Ernest Gruening would like to see the nucleus of the wartime guard preserved in a unit of the National Guard. But competition for federal funds is keen. So is competition for federal funds with which to build armories and otherwise prepare a base for a National Guard unit.

In this competition, Alaska is hopelessly outdistanced by the fact that it is a territory. The territories are in the same anomalous position as the political mump. They send delegates to the U. S. House of Representatives, but the delegates cannot vote and therefore they have only the most limited influence in Washington.

A bill to grant statehood to Hawaii has been approved by the House Public Lands Committee. A powerful case was made for Hawaii. But the statehood bill was referred to the House Rules Committee, where it has been bottled up ever since. At this writing, there is no sign of when it will be allowed to come to a vote.

Hearings have been held on a statehood bill for Alaska, with most witnesses favoring it. While Hawaii is first in line for statehood, the need is almost greater for our northernmost territory. It is too strategic an area to be left to the whims and chances of territorial rule. Even with a Secretary of the Interior such as J. A. Krug, who has worked intensively in Alaska's interest during the past year, a territory occupies a dubious position.

—ALASKA'S DEFENSES WEAK—
The disturbing fact is that Alaska's defenses today are declining rapidly toward the prewar level. And the prewar level was close to zero.

Today there are an estimated 22,000 troops still in Alaska, plus one air group. An air group consists normally of about 100 fighters or 175 heavier planes. This is the total allotment for the vast territory that lies in the area from which war will come if it comes.

Inquiry at the War Department brings the response that further defense plans are still in the "study stage." That goes for the radar warning system about which so much has been written. Congress is being asked for funds to develop radar which will have a greater range than present equipment.

It begins to look as though we were drifting rather swiftly back to normalcy. While we talk big about Russia and the atom bomb, we fail to take steps which would help to insure that national defense is kept relatively up to date. Statehood for Hawaii and Alaska is one of those steps.

The moral about the submarines may also point a moral about cooperation between Army and Navy. There is a deep undercover resistance to even the kind of unification that President Truman has proposed. The services also seem to be drifting.

The direction is backward—back to the complacent past when general competed with admiral for appropriations and acclaim.

the pronunciation "free-ZAY" for the word "frieze"?—V. McL.

Answer: None whatever. The pronunciation "free-ZAY" is what I call bargain-basement French. Frieze, however, is not French. It's strictly English, and the correct pronunciation is: freez.

Milwaukee: Please Colbyize the word "eczema."—M. G. J.

Answer: The word is from the Greek ekzema, meaning "to boil out." Accent the first syllable only, thus: EK-zee-muh. Also permissible: EK-see-muh.

Concord: Who wrote, "Whom the Gods would destroy they first make mad"?—A. C. G.

Answer: That exact wording is Longfellow's in "The Masque of Pandora." But the proverb, variously worded, is ancient. Sophocles (fourth century B. C.) wrote it thus: "When Divine Power plans evil for men, 'First injures his mind' Lycurgus (ninth century B. C.) said: "When falls on man the anger of the gods, first from his mind they banish understanding."

Savannah: Here is a clipping that refers to Jack Dempsey as the "ex-world's heavyweight champion." Sounds queer to me.—M. W. P.

Answer: Despite the atom bomb, this globe is not yet an "ex-world." A better construction is: Former heavyweight champion of the world.

Not Until the Jug Is Empty, Says Uncle Joe

Good Morning!

By The Bugler

WHY "IMPOSSIBLE"—It was reported the other day that the Escanaba city council has been informed by State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler that the improvement of Highway M-35 from Ford River Mills south to the Delta-Menominee county line is "impossible" now when the state has the concrete paving of over 5 miles of the road in Menominee county is difficult to understand. If it is because the state highway department does not want to have two projects underway on the same route in adjacent counties, or because it is undesirable to allocate the large a fund for one route, that explanation might be understandable.

If it is a question of finances, however, the "impossible" answer is unsatisfactory. Higher labor and materials costs might require a reduction in the amount of highway improvement, but it does not make it "impossible," as the work now underway in Menominee county proves.

Dunathan

FUND ALLOCATION — In Grand Rapids earlier this spring the state highway commissioner announced that his department was looking forward to 1947 as "the greatest construction year in its history."

There was no announcement on where the funds were to be expended, and no community in the state is fearful that it will not receive consideration in trunkline improvements based on need and traffic volume. Yet the Upper Peninsula as a geographical area might be concerned after its experience of last year and during the war years, when it received less than its share of highway improvements.

LOSE $4,500,000—Here is the way the Upper Peninsula was bypassed in 1946:

During the year the highway department's total cost of work under contract was $34,000,000.

Of this total only $3,500,000 was spent in the Upper Peninsula.

There is a state law, adopted by the legislature last year, that requires that 25 per cent of all state highway funds be spent in the Upper Peninsula; 25 per cent be allocated for work in Lower Michigan north of the Muskegon-Bay City line; and that the remaining 50 per cent go for highway projects located in the lower half of Lower Michigan.

If the law had been followed in allocating highway funds for work in the Upper Peninsula, the total for the U. P. would be 25 per cent of $34,000,000 or approximately $8,000,000.

But the Upper Peninsula did not get $8,000,000. Rather, the highway work in the U. P. was only $3,500,000—or $4,500,000 short of the total it has a legal right to expect.

WHAT OF THIS YEAR?—With the state highway department launched on its "greatest construction year" in history, Upper Peninsula people might inquire what percentage of the total expenditure is to go for highway work above the Straits.

Is the 1947 highway fund to go largely to metropolitan areas in Lower Michigan? Are the outstate

Into the Past

Ten Years Ago

Washington—The fate of the federal old age pension system, under which payrolls and wages are taxed to provide benefits for some 26,000,000 employees when they become 65, was in the hands of the supreme court today.

Three talented students of the Michigan School of the Blind at Lansing, accompanied by the J. F. Cauffman and their musical instructor, Miss Agnes Hemstreet, provided the Escanaba Lions club with their most unusual and interesting program.

Washington—The ranking minority of the house naval committee said today that a $180,000,000 navy construction program would be abandoned, at least temporarily in the interest of economy.

A regular meeting of the Escanaba city council, held tonight in the council chambers, will be the first since the special meeting held two weeks ago when final decisions upon granting liquor licenses were held.

Twenty Years Ago

Lansing—The Leland administration three cent gas tax bill was adopted by the legislature today, bearing amendments which increase the amounts returned to the counties and distributes a proportion to the cities.

Managua, Nicaragua—Though no definite peace settlement has been reached by Henry I. Stimson, President Coolidge's representative as mediator between the warring liberals and conservatives, Gen. Jose Maria Moncada, commander of the liberal armies, announced in effect that on the insistence of the United States, he was ready to lay down arms.

sections that depend so much on highway transportation expected to wait until downstate trunkline improvements have been completed? Is the Upper Peninsula to get 10 per cent or 25 per cent of the total highway fund allocation? These are questions that should be asked and answered.

GETTING A PROJECT — To obtain consent of the state highway department to a highway improvement project appears to be both difficult and costly. The first public announcement of any improvement of M-35 in Menominee county was contemplated came not from the highway department but from a delegation of Menominee county citizens after a visit to Lansing. Their report to the community was published in the Menominee newspaper.

The project was not previously scheduled, and there was considerable hurried activity in obtaining right-of-way for some relocation. This was not altogether popular and there were objections and court actions, which again brought the project into public print. It also revealed a lack of preparation for the project, and indicated the haste with which it was scheduled.

THE BETTER WAY — In Delta county the road commission was the first to direct the attention of the state highway department to the need for improving M-35 in Delta county. Similar resolutions were passed by the county board, city council, Chamber of Commerce, and other organizations. There has been no local delegation visiting the highway commissioner in Lansing and so far as we

Q. What were the "talknotes"?
A. Places used by the old Saxons for conferences. They were also used as defenses. They were called "banne."

Q. My husband and I returned from Mexico and described the delicious tortillas he had there. Do you have a recipe for tortillas?

A. Three cups flour, 3 tsp. butter or lard, 1 cup milk and 1 tsp. salt. Knead the mixture the same as bread and roll the dough into balls the size of an apple. Place on a floured board, roll the tortilla flat and thin, about the size of a dinner plate, then cook on a griddle, without grease, turning from side to side until brown and crisp.

Q. I am a 30 per cent disabled veteran and would like to know if it is possible for my rating to be increased or rated?

A. Once a rating has been established by the Veterans' Administration for service-connected disability, it cannot thereafter be changed except to correct previous error, or on the basis of subsequent medical examination showing that the disability has become worse or better, justifying an increase or decrease in the rating.

Q. Is the average American family larger today than it was a century ago?

A. It is smaller. In 1850 there were 5.6 persons in the average family; in 1940, there were only 3.8 persons in the average family.

Q. What is the "Liberty Tree"?

A. A tree in Boston, Massachusetts, where, in 1765, the colonists hanged an effigy of Mr. Oliver the newly appointed British stamp collector. This was one of the incidents which led to the Revolutionary War.

Q. It is generally known that the highest number of immigrants from Asia have come from China. From which country have China's second largest number?

From Japan. From 1820 to 1945 277,949 Japanese came into the U. S. For the same period 383,541 Chinese entered the U. S.

know this has not been considered necessary.

Perhaps this community and others in the Upper Peninsula would be benefited if their representatives could meet with their state highway officials in a conference on highway improvement priorities in this region of the state. An annual meeting of this kind might clarify for the communities some of the state's program plans. It might even succeed in having the Upper Peninsula allocated highway work funds that would more nearly approach the stipulated 25 per cent.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

BY DREW PEARSON

Washington—If the army really wants to save money, here is one way they can do it: Eliminate such vacation-travel rackets as that pulled by Col. Maxwell Keeler, commanding officer of the Madigan General Hospital, Tacoma, Wash.

Colonel Keeler recently had occasion to send an ambulatory patient, Pvt. Alvin Anenberg, from Tacoma to the Veterans hospital in Northport, N. Y.—a trip across the continent. Ordinarily a non-commissioned officer is detailed to attend a patient of this kind who can walk.

However, Colonel Keeler apparently saw Private Anenberg's trip as an excuse to go along himself, thereby visiting his old home in Connecticut; also to give several other men trips home—all at government expense.

For the travel orders for Private Anenberg show that he was attended by a full Colonel—Keeler, himself — together with Sgt. Lewis J. Braucher, Pvt. Lawrence Hedding and Pvt. Donald J. Jensen. This is a big retinue of medical attendants to go across the continent with a patient who can walk. In addition, each attendant was given "ten days delay en route chargeable as leave."

Interesting thing about the ten days leave is that Colonel Keeler's order to himself ordering himself from Tacoma to New York, showed that his ten days leave was to be spent at New Canaan, Conn., his old home. The army orders also states that Private Hedding will spend his ten days at Two Harbors, Minn.—his home; while Private Jensen got leave to visit Princeton, Minn.—his home.

Another interesting fact: After Colonel Keeler issued his "joyride" order, all copies were picked up and suppressed.

—FDR'S PLANS FOR JEWS—

In view of the current Palestine debate, some of the unwritten history of Franklin Roosevelt's ideas on Jewish refugees may be important. This Jewist is indebted to Morris Ernst, close friend of the late president who, wrote to friend to discuss the Jewish question with the British, for the details of Roosevelt's views.

Roosevelt, according to Ernst, did not believe that the problem of Jewish refugees should be settled merely by taking over a large part of Palestine. He felt that the tragic uprooting of the Jews by Hitler was a world problem in which every nation should participate. In brief FDR's plan involved three parts:

1. Jewish migration to all countries—not merely Palestine. He figured 100,000 refugees should come to the United States, with a like number to England.
2. A world budget raised proportionately by all the United Nations to finance this migration.
3. Internal reparations for Jews inside Germany and Austria.

—JEWS BACK TO GERMANY—

Regarding the latter point, Roosevelt maintained that German and Austrian Jews should at least be given an opportunity to get their property back, plus some additional property to compensate for their suffering. It was suggested that the great landed estates which once supported the Junker military caste be broken up and divided among displaced Jews. Also the tremendous surplus of American army goods abroad, FDR suggested, might be used to help refugees get re-established if they wanted to remain in Germany.

However, if the Jews did not want to remain in Germany, Roosevelt proposed that all nations, as well as Palestine, take in a certain quota. In fact, the state department has discussed this with various Latin American governments even while Roosevelt was alive—though the results were not too satisfactory.

Roosevelt also figured that since U. S. immigration had been shut off for about six years during and just prior to the war, the United States could afford to use up these accumulated immigration quotas all at one time—thus taking in around 100,000 refugees.

At FDR's suggestion this idea was discussed by Ernst with Oliver Stanley, then British colonial secretary, who agreed that Britain would match this figure by also taking in 100,000 refugees.

Roosevelt's idea was that if the United States, Britain and other countries took in part of those who suffered from Hitler's hate, we would not be in such a hypocritical position in also asking the Arabs to move over in Palestine.

—MEXICAN CONQUEST—

It took one hundred years for Mexico to reverse the process of capturing the capital of the United States. But those who met President Aleman in Washington admit that he did it—exactly one hundred years after U. S. troops captured Mexico City.

A lot has happened in the century since then, and superstition-minded diplomats point out that a lot of it happened during years ending with seven. Mexico City was entered by U. S. troops in 1847. General Pershing finally withdrew his expedition from Mexican soil in 1917. And in 1927 U. S.-Mexican relations reached one of their lowest ebbs when Frank B. Kellogg wrote his series of notes putting Mexico "on trial" before the world.

Again it may have been just luck, but the Aleman visit to the USA, setting a new high in U. S.-Mexican friendship, took place just after the Moscow conference. Many diplomats—both European and Latin American—consider this a direct answer to Moscow's failure. In other words while the United States will do its best to cooperate with Europeans, it will also work harder than ever at the recently somewhat neglected good-neighbor policy. A solid, western hemisphere front, some diplomats believe, is the best answer to Russia.

MRS. DAUSEY IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Pioneer Of Rapid River
Community Dies At The Age Of 85

Mrs. Mary Agnes Dausey, 85, widow of Frank Dausey of Rapid River, and a pioneer resident of that community for the past 77 years, died at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in St. Francis hospital. She had been a patient there for the past six days.

Born March 14, 1862 in Suamico, Wis., Mrs. Dausey moved to Rapid River about 1870 and has resided there since. She was a member of the Rapid River Congregational church.

Surviving are one daughter, LeLage Dausey of Rapid River; one brother, William Laraby of Rapid River; and three sisters, Mrs. Levi Barbeau of Rapid River; Mrs. Harvey Denny of Escanaba; and Mrs. Anna Monson of Milwaukee.

The body is now in state in the Anderson funeral home, and will be taken to the Congregational church in Rapid River at 1:30 p. m. Monday. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the church with the Rev. Serge Hummon officiating. Burial will be in the family lot in Rapid River cemetery.

Briefly Told

Minstrel On Tonight—A repeat performance of the popular Bark River Lions club minstrel show will be given tonight at St. George's church auditorium, Bark River. Doors will open at 7 p. m. and the show will start at 8 p. m. This will be the fifth presentation of the minstrel attraction.

Overweight—Bill Smith, 429 S. Ninth street, Escanaba, driver for the Stang Oil company, Gladstone, paid a fine of $10 and costs for driving an overweight truck on US-2 during the period of load restrictions.

Rh Blood Factoring Reviewed By Doctor, Disparity Uncommon

Much publicity has recently been given to that invisible substance, the Rh blood factor, attached to the blood cells of about 85 per cent of all human beings. These people are said to possess Rh positive blood cells. The other 15 per cent of the population are said to have Rh negative cells.

According to one of the fundamental laws of nature it is necessary for the body to attempt to protect itself against any material which gets into the circulation that does not belong there. In order to do this, substances known as antibodies are produced which unite with the foreign material and destroy it. These antibodies may be anti-bacterial, or anti-pollen (in people who have hay fever) or anti-egg or wheat or strawberries in people for whom these foods are harmful. People react somewhat differently to foreign material, some producing large number of antibodies, others very few.

If a person is Rh negative he reacts to Rh positive cells that get into his circulation in the same way that he would react to other foreign materials—and he may develop antibodies against them. Rh positive cells may enter the circulation of an Rh negative person in two ways: (1) By means of a transfusion when the blood given was taken from a person whose cells are Rh positive or (2) a pregnant woman may receive blood cells from her baby thru a leak in the vessels which carry its blood in the placenta.

If either a man or woman who is Rh negative is given transfusions of Rh positive blood nothing harmful happens after the first transfusion. The body, however, goes to work to produce antibodies, it may take several transfusions to stimulate the formation of a large number of antibodies, but eventually when enough are formed, they will unite with and destroy any Rh positive cells subsequently given in a transfusion. When large numbers of cells are destroyed within a short period of time illness or even death may follow.

If a mother is Rh negative and her husband is Rh negative all of her children will be Rh negative. However, if the mother is Rh negative and her husband is Rh positive, her children are very likely to inherit the father's type of blood cells so that they will be Rh positive too. Normally the blood of the mother and the blood of the baby are separated by vessel walls and theoretically the cells never mix but on rare occasions a break may occur and blood of the baby may leak into the mother's circulation or the Rh factor free of the red blood cells may pass through the vessel walls. If she and the baby are both Rh positive nothing happens; if they are both Rh negative nothing happens, but if the baby is Rh positive and the mother is Rh negative, the mother's blood may begin developing antibodies against the baby's cells. This usually does not harm the baby of that pregnancy, but when the woman again becomes pregnant and her child is again Rh positive these antibodies may be further stimulated to develop. When present in large numbers they can pass from the mother's blood through the walls of the baby's blood vessels, enter its circulation and destroy some of its blood cells. This produces an anemia which if very severe may cause the death of the baby before birth.

The occurrence of any such disturbance in a baby because of Rh differences in its parents is sufficiently infrequent to make unwarranted the great publicity which the Rh factor has recently received.

Although in about 12 per cent of all pregnancies an Rh negative woman bears an Rh positive child, in only about three-tenths of 1 per cent of all babies does this form of anemia, which is known as erythroblastosis, develop. That means only about one out of every fifty Rh negative women will ever have babies with this disease.

At the Michigan Department of Health laboratory in Powers, blood can be tested for Rh reaction and the results are obtainable in one to two days. For the past year the laboratory has been running an average of 175 blood tests of this type each month. So far Rh blood tests are not done on all pre-marital blood but arrangements can be made if desired.

George Washington weighed 209 pounds while in command of American forces.

Monday, Tuesday Final Opportunity For Chest X-Rays

Escanaba residents who have not yet had their chests x-rayed free in the state health department's mobile unit will have their final opportunity for the tuberculosis examination Monday and Tuesday.

The mobile x-ray unit will be at the Red Cross office in the 600 block, Ludington street, from 9 a. m. to noon, and from 1 to 5 p. m. each of the two days. Persons who present themselves for the x-ray are asked to register first in the Red Cross office.

Volunteers who will assist in the two days are Mrs. G. C. Bartley, Miss Delight Mashek, Mrs. H. J. Defnet, Mrs. Roy Baldwin, Mrs. Charles Burns, Mrs. C. Andy Anderson and Miss Edith Johnson.

Since the x-ray unit came to the county about one month ago a total of 6,196 examinations have been made. Reports to the individuals on the result of the x-ray examination are made about three weeks after the test.

Excavation Work For New Tech Gym Is Now Underway

Houghton, May 3.—Excavation work for the Sherman Memorial gymnasium, new physical training building of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology, began on April 30. Construction of the building will proceed throughout the summer and will probably continue during the greater part of the winter. It is expected the gymnasium will be completed early in the spring of 1948.

Lack of funds may prevent finished installations in some parts of the building, but provision will be made in the construction for the completion of all planned facilities when the money becomes available.

Construction work on Michigan Tech's new dormitory wing is going forward on schedule, and the building may be ready for occupancy late in the fall. Preliminary work on a new three-story radiations laboratory is now being done, and site surveying is being carried on for the college's central heating plant.

Rialto Theater In Menominee Is Sold

Marinette—The Rialto theater here has been sold to the Fox Wisconsin Theatres corporation. It was learned today when the deed was filed at the office of Miss Carol Jackson, register of deeds. The internal revenue stamps affixed indicated the sale price was $65,000. The theatre was sold by Benjamin D. Arenson and Harold Weisner.

Arenson and Weisner bought the theatre in October, 1945, for $55,000 from the Coffey Brothers Land company.

Texas City Relative Of Janis Eaton Has Very Narrow Escape

Early reports of the Texas City disaster were especially alarming to Miss Janis Eaton of Iron Mountain, dancing instructor in this city.

Miss Eaton's father, Guy McGriff, is a civil engineer and resides in Galveston. His work takes him daily to the city of catastrophe.

Alarmed by the possibility of disaster to her father and mother, Miss Eaton implored telephone operators to let her place a long distance call and after six hours was able to get it through, only to learn that all the telephones in the block were disconnected due to the explosions.

A message was dispatched to the McGriffs and after another long wait the call came back with assurance of their safety.

Mrs. McGriff had been riding on a bus from Galveston to Texas City and saw the Grandcamp steamer burning. She implored the driver to stop but he said that they would be in the city shortly. Just then the bus was lifted in the air and deposited upside down. No one was harmed due to the protective shell of the bus.

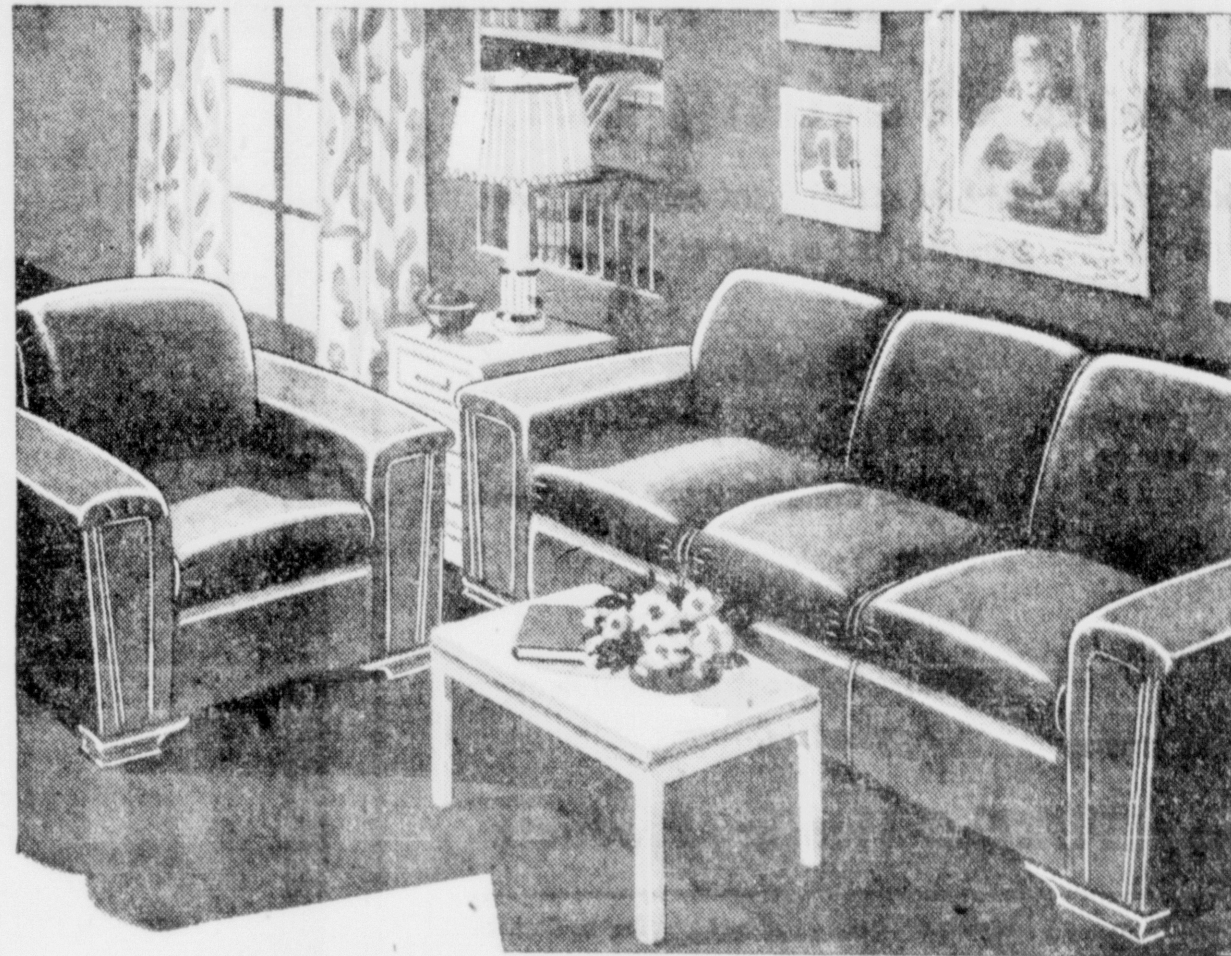

Mrs. McGriff walked back to Galveston and arrived before her husband sought the aid of authorities.

ROCK TRUCKER IS NOT GUILTY

Marquette Jury Acquits
Alvin O. Eagle In Accident Case

Marquette, Mich.—A municipal court jury deliberated only 7½ minutes Thursday afternoon before returning a verdict of not guilty in a drunken driving case.

It continued unbroken a long record of freeing defendants tried here on that charge.

The case, brought to trial after two weeks' delay, involved Alvin O. Eagle, rock trucker, arrested by city police late on the night of April 10 near the Fisher-Champion street intersection.

City Police Officer Robert Greene, who arrested Eagle, and Woodrow Betts, on duty when Eagle was brought into the police station, said the defendant was "definitely drunk."

Eagle and a companion, John Caswell, Jr., of Brampton, said they each had three glasses of beer that evening and were not drunk.

Greene, who testified first, said he saw Eagle's truck pull out from its parking place in front of a tavern on Spring street, cross the South Shore railroad tracks on the left side of the semaphore signals, turn south into Third street without stopping at the Third-Spring intersection and drive on the left side of the street for two of the three blocks between Spring and Fisher, narrowly missing several parked vehicles. He caught up to the truck on Fisher and signalled it to stop with a flashlight.

Robert Lemire, attorney for veterans in Escanaba, made a strong attempt to impeach Greene's testimony, bringing an objection from Assistant Prosecutor Roscoe W. Baldwin and instructions from Municipal Judge John Siegel to Lemire to be "careful of your questioning."

At one point, the police officer, asked by the defense attorney whether he ever consumed liquor himself, refused to answer. He told Lemire it was "beside the point" and, after several attempts to get Greene to answer, the issue was dropped.

Two Motorists Pay Justice Court Fines

Oscar Huttula, 30 of Escanaba yesterday pleaded guilty in Justice Henry Ranguette's court to a drunk driving charge and was released on payment of a $50 fine and costs of $8.25. His driving license was also revoked. He was arrested Friday night by sheriff's officers on US2-41 in Wells township when his car ran off the highway. No one was hurt.

Lloyd Olson, 25, of Bark River Rt. 1, Thursday pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge and paid a fine of $25 and costs. The arrest was made by sheriff's officers after an accident April 27 in which a car driven by Olson was involved.

Nahma

Double Birthday Party

Nahma, Mich.—Mrs. Arthur Groleau and her son Thomas Beaudry celebrated their birthdays at a party held at the Groleau home last Thursday evening. A birthday dinner was served and two lovely cakes centered the table.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Groleau and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Beaudry and family of St. Jacques, and Eugene Groleau, Clarence Beaudry and Rudolph Clark of Nahma.

Personals

Mrs. Peter Newhouse and daughter, Beatrice, visited with Mrs. Thomas Beaudry in St. Jacques on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Groleau have moved from St. Jacques to Nahma and are living in one of the apartments in the old school.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Cunningham and family of Gladstone spent the week end at the Andrew Krutina home.

When she decides to divorce her husband, a Navajo Indian woman sets his saddle and other personal effects outside their hut.

Army Recruiters Are Coming Here

A U. S. army recruiting team will arrive in the Escanaba area on May 5 to begin a five week tour of the eastern half of the Upper Peninsula. They will conduct an extensive recruiting campaign which will begin in Bark River on May

5. On May 6 and 7 they will work in Escanaba, May 8 in Gladstone, and on May 9 in Rapid River. On May 11, they will depart from here for the Sault Ste. Marie area.

The primary purpose of this team is to secure voluntary enlistments for the regular army but in addition to this they will conduct a survey to determine the efficiency of the army recruiting advertising campaign.

The team consists of six enlisted men who served in the army during the recent war and who have decided to make a career of the regular army because of its many colorful advantages. Three of the team's members are from the Upper Peninsula and the remaining three are from the state of Wisconsin.

We're Trying to Handle EMERGENCY CALLS

During the Telephone Strike . . .

But we must have your co-operation

Before you attempt to place either a Local or Long Distance call, please stop and ask yourself—

IS IT AN EMERGENCY?

DOES THE CALL INVOLVE: FIRE? POLICE? SICKNESS? INJURY? DEATH? LOSS OF PROPERTY?

If it does, your call is an EMERGENCY call and you have reason to attempt to place it. And our limited forces will do their best to handle it.

If your call does NOT involve an emergency, please do NOT attempt to place it.

With only a few people available to man the switchboards during the strike, we must devote our efforts to EMERGENCY CALLS ONLY. It is necessary for us to answer all signals on the switchboards to determine which are emergency calls. So it is imperative that you limit your calls to EMERGENCY CALLS ONLY.

Even so, there still remains the risk that some emergency calls will go unhandled because we just do not have enough people.

Michigan Bell deeply regrets the need for this urgent appeal for your co-operation. We are still trying to settle the strike. Meanwhile, we are doing our best to handle emergency calls. Please help us . . .

Parish Supper

Powers, Mich.—The annual parish supper of Zion Episcopal church in Wilson was served Sunday evening in the church hall. After the informal supper the guests attended a short service in the church, presided over by the pastor, the Rev. William Robertson of Iron Mountain. After this the annual reports were read and approved, of both the church and the Woman's Guild. A new cemetery board was called to existence at this time. Several committee reports were given, discussed and later accepted.

Card Club Entertained

Members of the birthday club were entertained at the home of Mrs. Eval Fletcher, near Hermansville, Thursday. Hostesses were Mrs. Theodore Fazer and her daughter Mrs. Fletcher. A 12:30 dinner was served and this was followed by a "tossing bee". The quilt contained 224 squares which led to a jumbled guessing contest. The prize was awarded to Mrs. Joe Bruner. In the card games which were played later, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Tim Loeffler first, Mrs. Roy Harris second, Mrs. Ray Peterson third. Traveling prize was also held by Mrs. Loeffler.

Card Party

Mrs. Alice Hamacher entertained a few friends at her home Sunday evening. In the cash games, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Oliver Ravet first, Mrs. Emma Disteneau second, Mrs. Mary Borden, traveling prize and Mrs. Art Hupy guest award. Refreshments were served at the close of play.

Auxiliary Meeting

The next regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Joe Ravet on Tuesday evening, May 6. Assisting hostess will be Mrs. Theodore Fazer.

Weight Tax Revenue Is Up By $5,000,000

Lansing, (AP)—State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler reported that weight tax collections for the first quarter of 1947 totaled $22,017,662.11, and vouchers for returning the money to counties and cities for local roads and streets are being sent to the auditor general.

The figure represented a $5,000,000 increase over collections for the same period last year.

Following are first quarter tax monies to be returned to counties and cities:

Kent, $1,042,894; Delta, $119,789. "Rented the first day" said Smith

Every Line is a look at Tomorrow

YOU spot it on the highway every time a Buick comes along:

Here you meet the future face-to-face.

Here you see the clean, rich, uncluttered design that marks the swing away from what was to what is going to be.

Here's the sweep and flow of fender line that's called for by a streamlined age — here's the solid, steady look that spells roadability — the broad beam that means room — the massive bonnet that tells of Fireball power aplenty.

Here's grace, here's ability, here's sturdy dependability — all wrapped up in one handsome package that's not merely up-to-the-times but ahead of it.

Here are the good looks that bespeak good works; you hardly have to be told of precisions carried to ten-thousandths of an inch, of materials searched out from the finest to be found.

Any wonder that such a creation is America's most wanted automobile? Any wonder people pass up cars that may be easier to get to wait for a car that's going to stay fresh and new and modern-looking?

The simple fact is that you're buying in the future when you buy any good car today.

Why not settle on the one that most obviously foretells what the future will be — that has the most in it of what is to come?

Buick dealers' showrooms are kept pretty bare of display models by the eagerness of Buick buyers to "take over" the first minute they can.

But you'll be greeted in every one of them with courtesy and sincere interest in getting your Buick at the first minute possible.

Drop in — talk it over — and insure yourself a happy future by placing your order now. We'll take it, with or without a car to trade.

Prepare For Legion
Poppy Day May 24

Memorial poppies which will be worn here on Poppy Day, May 24, in honor of the dead of both wars, have been received by Cloverland Unit No. 82, American Legion Auxiliary.

"The poppies are replicas of the wild poppies which grew in France and Belgium where so many of the battles were fought," explained Mrs. Signe Nerbonne, Legion auxiliary poppy chairman.

"Each flower is made by hand by a disabled veteran. The work gives the disabled veteran something interesting to do during the long hours of hospitalization and convalescence. Besides giving them something to do, it enables them to earn money, which builds their morale and assists their families."

The poppies are unadorned and are sold by the Auxiliary's poppy committee and made ready for the volunteer workers who will distribute them in all parts of the city on Poppy Day.

No price will be asked for the flowers but everyone receiving one will be asked to contribute something for the welfare of the disabled veterans, their families, and the families of the dead. Contributions make possible the continuance of the Legion Auxiliary's rehabilitation and child welfare work.

CLOCKS PUSHED
AHEAD TONIGHTCity Of Munising To Change To E. S. T.
At Midnight

Munising—The city of Munising will change to Eastern Standard time at midnight tonight, Sunday, May 4, D. R. Potter, city clerk announced.

Residents of the city are reminded to turn their clocks ahead one hour at that time. "Fast" time will continue until the last Sunday of September, the clerk said.

At the meeting of the city commission Thursday, a communication from C. W. Curtis, of the Munising paper mill, was read relative to the date covering the change of time. Mr. Curtis requested the commissioners, if possible, to make arrangements for the future to have the city change to "fast time" on the same date as surrounding communities do. The commissioners deferred action on this matter until a later date.

SPARTANS BEAT IRISH IN TRACK

Notre Dame Bows 76-65 In Dual Event

East Lansing, Mich., May 3 (AP)—Michigan State powered to nine first places in 15 events today to whip Notre Dame 76 to 65 in a dual track meet.

Bob Schepers, sweeping the clock and 220-yard dashes, was locked in 21.3 seconds in the 220 to knock two-tenths of a second off the field record held by Allen Tolmich of Wayne. Fred Johnson of the Spartans leaped 24 feet 5 1/2 inches for a field record in the broad jump and also tied for first in the high jump and ran third in the 100-yard dash.

Notre Dame hurdler John Smith won the high hurdles and ran third in both the low hurdles and 220-yard dash.

Bob Fraser of Michigan State took down the only dual meet record of the day by skipping over the low hurdles in 23.5 seconds, better than a half second faster than the 1942 mark of Notre Dame's Bill Dillon.

Michigan State swept all three places in the broad jump and Notre Dame duplicated in the javelin throw.

Russia And U. S. A. Split Sharply Over Jews In Palestine

BY JOHN A. PARRIS, JR.

New York, May 3 (AP)—The United States and Russia split sharply today over Jewish representation in the United Nations Palestine debate and the issue was left undecided after a four-hour wrangle in the general assembly.

Assembly President Oswaldo Aranha insisted on a night session to settle the question of how the Jews should be heard on the Holy Land issue, but Australian Delegate W. R. Hodson led a small-nation revolt for adjournment until 11 a. m. (E.D.T.) Monday.

When the delegates finally quit, the situation was this. Steering committee report recommending that the 55-nation political committee decide on all requests for a hearing.

Russia backed a Polish resolution which would allow the official Jewish agency to be represented at plenary meetings of the special session. This resolution, already rejected by the steering committee, was revived by Poland at the opening of today's second session.

Both sides had considerable support, but it appeared almost certain that the American proposal would be approved when the final vote is taken.

U-M Trackmen Tip Purdue, Indiana

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 3 (AP)—Michigan's track team opened its home season outdoors here today with a sparkling triangular meet triumph over Indiana and Purdue as Charlie Fennville, sophomore weight star of the Wolverines, showed the 16-pound shot 53 feet 10 1/2 inches to break a Ferry Field record set by Bill Watson in 1938.

Michigan scored 72 1/2 points to Indiana's 57 1/2 and Purdue trailed with 31.

Fennville, who bettered Watson's old mark in the shot by almost 16 inches, also took the discus throw with a toss of 139 feet 6 inches.

Herb Barten, Michigan's diminutive distance man, supplied another double triumph for the Wolverines when he got home first in both the mile and half mile.

Phils Get Schmidt, Walker From Cards

Philadelphia, May 3 (AP)—Manager Eddie Dyer announced late today that the St. Louis Cardinals had traded outfielder Harry Walker and pitcher Fred Schmidt to the Philadelphia Phils for outfielder Ron Northey and an undisclosed sum of cash.

Walker and Schmidt, a right-hander, were ready to leave with the Cardinals squad for Boston when they were instructed to remain here and join the Phils.

do not want to leave, stand back and let the others do so."

He told the men they had lost all privileges, including possession of pipes and combs, until they had proved they were on "good behavior" again.

Trouble Smoulders

The current trouble began smouldering Thursday night and resulted in prisoners being detained in their cell blocks until noon yesterday.

Colonel Parks said because of the small barracks population and some renovating work, most of the prisoners had been moved into blocks 6 and 7, the former for white inmates and the other built with a large central rotunda with eight cell blocks radiating off like wheel spokes.

He added, however, that the more recalcitrant prisoners were not confined there, but in basement cells.

"Friday morning," Colonel Park said, "Lt. Col. W. A. Drownes, the supervisor of prisoners, reported to me that the inmates in 6 would not go to breakfast. I told him to tell them they would go now or go without food."

"They still refused to go and then locked the inner door of the wing and began tearing the place to pieces."

At 10 a. m., the colonel said, three men came to the grill on No. 6 and wanted to talk, but "I told them 'Only on my terms,' which were that they come out in small groups, clean up the block, be searched, and go to breakfast."

Hell Breaks Loose

To this they agreed. He estimated that they had caused from $300 to $400 worth of damage in the block. Among other things they had shattered high windows by firing ball bearings with rubber bands. The bearings had been obtained from a broken lock.

Friday afternoon passed quietly with details answering work call as usual and with supper at 4:45 p. m. being orderly.

The major riot began last night, parks told reporters, when three negroes attacked a white man in the shower room. The man was injured slightly.

Soon afterward another negro involved some white and negro inmates who became mixed in the routine of taking the men to the basement shower room in groups of 50.

"A little later," the colonel said, "a turnkey reported that the door to No. 6 cell block was open and all hell had broken loose in both cell blocks. Negro and white inmates were charging out of both blocks. It was in this melee that Osborn was stabbed fatally. The others were injured at the same time."

With the aid of tear gas the men were herded back to their respective cells, but the disturbance continued throughout the night.

At 4 o'clock this morning the Kansas City police received a call for tear gas, and a second call two hours later. This was the first word outside of the military post of the trouble.

Joseph T. Bowen, veteran Fort Leavenworth fire chief, was given a large measure of credit for persuading the men in cell block 7 to surrender.

He forced his way into a riot gallery, rigged up two lines of hose, and called down to the men advising them to surrender, telling them he was prepared to turn on the water. The men said they were ready, and asked for instructions.

Bowen relayed the message to the guards who instructed the men to come out into the open in groups of five, and strip.

The white men objected to eating in the same mess hall with the negroes, despite the fact the negroes were served from separate tables and by negro mess attendants. This was the first time, however, that it had flared into open violence.

General Gerow said a group of Army officers from Fifth Army headquarters at Chicago were flying to Fort Leavenworth to open an investigation.

Ted Bishop Cops 36-Hole Amateur Meet In England

Woking, England, May 3 (AP)—Stanley (Ted) Bishop, U. S. amateur golf champion from Dedham, Mass., won the 36-hole Goldsmith cup open amateur tournament today as members of the U. S. Walker cup team steeled their sea legs with a stiff competition on British soil.

Despite a first breeze, bishop shot a 72-74—146 to top a field of 56 but scored of the other nine Walker cuppers who arrived only yesterday soared as high as 83 and left some of them in short temper after trying to fathom the tricky greens on the 6,204-yard Worplesdon course.

Fred Kammer, Detroit, Mich., scored 79-72—151. Frances Oulley, non-playing captain of the Walker cup team, was pleased with the ice-breaking competition of his players, who have 13 more days to practice for the international matches at St. Andrews, May 16 and 17.

ASSAULT STILL GOOD

New York, May 3 (AP)—As usual, 1946 horse of the year and triple crown champion, came charging up from last place to win the $40,000-added Grey Lag handicap at Jamaica today. Lets Dance was second and Colindale third with Symic fourth.

U-M Athletes Face A Busy Week; Four Ball Games Slated

Ann Arbor, Mich., May 3 (AP)—Spring sports teams at the University of Michigan will pack 11 intercollegiate contests into the six days of next week with more than half the action on the road.

Coach Ray Fisher's baseball team is the busiest Wolverine squad of the week with four games—three of them away. After meeting Michigan State in the first half of their home-and-home series here Tuesday, the Wolverine nine tackles Michigan normal Wednesday at Ypsilanti and hops to Lafayette, Ind., for a Friday-Saturday series with Purdue.

Three golf matches, three tennis matches and a dual track meet with Ohio State complete the week's schedule, which has Michigan teams active every day of the week except Thursday.

Michigan's golf team faces Notre Dame Monday, University of Detroit Tuesday, and Illinois Saturday, all at home, while the Wolverine tennis team has a Tuesday date with Wayne here, faced Western Michigan Friday at Kalamazoo and University of Chicago Saturday at Chicago.

The dual track meet with Ohio State's strong cinder outfit is a Saturday affair at Columbus.

LIFT OF $5.14 IN TELEPHONE PAY PROPOSED bring their minimum acceptable wage increase to $11.

The 12,000 operators and clerical workers, members of Local 44, MTE, have made public no specific counter-proposals beyond adherence to the national demand of a $6 weekly wage boost.

E. M. Sconyers, federal conciliator, said negotiations were suspended late Friday but, with both sides on two hour call, were expected to resume late today or Sunday.

"Both sides, at Friday's recess, were asked to reconsider their latest wage proposals and to look into the possibility of revising them," Sconyers said.

He did not indicate that either side had agreed to do so.

Sconyers added that he did not consider himself in a position to make optimistic forecasts of the strike situation, but insisted that talks will continue, despite the apparent deadlock.

The company reported Saturday that service had been restored to 43 telephone subscribers in suburban Redford where a cable was partially severed.

Picketing of homes of non-strikers occurred for the first time in Detroit and Benton Harbor.

An unidentified motorist fled after breaking a gas pressure valve in the Detroit-Windsor tunnel. Damage was slight.

Long lines in the Berrien county area were severed Friday night, Michigan Bell said, affecting service between Benton Harbor, Hartford, Coloma and Watervliet.

Garden

Parties

Garden, Mich.—The women of the birthday club and the members of the pinocle club combined their efforts to arrange a shower party for Mrs. Roland Boudreau at the Stellwagen cottage Monday evening, and presented her with a bathinette. A delicious potluck supper was served before play in cards, which resulted in prizes for Mrs. Boudreau, Mrs. Herb Sill and Mrs. Ossie Hazen. Coffee and cake was served after play before the open fire when family yarns were exchanged.

A card party was held at the St. John hall Tuesday night arranged by the following committee of women of the St. John parish, Mrs. Earl Root, Mrs. Ray Harris, Mrs. Gerard Thibault, Miss Marcella Winter, Mrs. Eugene Bernier Jr., Mrs. John Lester, Mrs. Albert Tatrow, Miss Fay Deloria and Miss Albertine Godbout. Prizes in play went to Mrs. Octave Boudreau, Miss Irene Brown, John Guertin Jr., and Virgil Winter. Lunch was served.

May Day Celebration

The kindergarten and first grade pupils entertained their mothers, friends and the pupils of all the schools at a May Day celebration at the Community hall Thursday afternoon. The original plans were to hold the exercises in the school yard but the weatherman decreed otherwise and so stage properties were taken to the hall. King Larry Thibault crowned Queen Barbara Jacques and then seated upon a gaily decorated throne, they presided over the following entertainment:

Maypole song, by group.

Good Morning Merry Sunshine, song by group.

Happy Thought, poem by King Larry.

Virginia Reel, dance by group including Lorna Maynard, Dianne Lester, Queen Barbara, Joyce Pelletier, Gene Bernier, Judy Farley, King Larry, Charles Winter, Lee Potvin, Gordon McPhee, Bobby Lalonde and Bob LaCost.

The Spider and the Fly, song by group.

Time To Rise, poem by Billy Newman.

Brian Rosebud game by group.

RIFLE RANGE TO BE BUILT

Sportsmen's Club Backs Project; Start On It Today

Ground will be broken today for a new small-bore rifle range to be constructed atop the north bluff by the Gladstone Rifle and Pistol club.

Sgt. Willard Wixom, Michigan State Police, president of the rifle club, announces plans for the new range which will have a steel-reinforced concrete backdrop with wings about 45 feet in width and some ten feet high. The backdrop will be of modern, approved design. Property leased from the city by the rifle club, is being used upon which to place the range.

Help of rifle club members, prospective members and all interested persons is enlisted in preparing the ground for the backdrop. Tools will be furnished. Men willing to help will meet at the city hall this morning at 9 o'clock. If any drive out later they turn off M-35 north at the second road to the right from the top of the bluff.

Mrs. C. B. Flanagan Dies In Menominee

Mrs. C. B. Flanagan, 48, of 615 Duran avenue, Menominee, died at 3:07 a. m. Friday at her home. Cancer caused her death following a six months' illness. She was well known in Gladstone.

Born in Iron Mountain Jan. 5, 1899, she attended the schools there and was graduated from the Northern Michigan College of Education at Marquette. She was a teacher for 15 years prior to her marriage to Dr. Flanagan.

Active in church and civic organizations until she became ill, she was a member of St. John's church, the Women's auxiliary, the Daughters of Isabella, the Catholic Women's club and the Menominee Women's club. An ardent golfer, she was a member of the North Shore and Riverside Country clubs.

Surviving her in addition to her husband are one daughter, Mary Elizabeth, at home and one son, Lieut. Clarence Flanagan jr., who is a member of the armed forces in the European theater. One brother and four sisters also survive.

They are Albert Lavigne of Minneapolis, Mrs. Fred Beaudry, Mrs. Anna Raiche of Iron Mountain, Mrs. James Fox of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Thomas McGee of Benton Harbor, Mich.

Mrs. Fox and Mrs. McGee are former residents of Gladstone. Mrs. Flanagan was also an aunt of Frank J. Beaudry of Ford River.

Final rites will be conducted Monday at 9 a. m., in St. John's church. The Rev. James J. Corcoran will be celebrant. At the requiem mass and interment will be in Riverside cemetery. The body may be viewed at the Lemieux funeral home from Sunday at 10 a. m., until Monday at 8:30 a. m., when brief services will precede the mass.

Motorist Damages Golf Club Greens

State police are investigating the damaging of a green at the Gladstone golf course on the Days River by some motorist who drove over and spun the wheels, digging deep ruts in it and damaging the turf.

It was the second time in a month that this has occurred and officers of the club are beginning to suspect vandalism.

Considerable expense and time is required to repair greens so damaged and use of the green is delayed.

In Search Of Local Airport

Highway US-2 was used as an emergency runway for a plane Saturday noon.

J. G. Sanders, chief pilot officer in the U. S. Navy, on his way from Traverse City to Crystal Falls, his home city, became confused, was unable to find the local airport and made a forced landing on the thoroughfare.

Sanders, stationed at San Diego, Calif., was enroute home in a Commonwealth Ranger, a private plane, and on the last leg of his journey had set out from Traverse City Saturday morning. Arriving in this area he encountered fog that made visibility uncertain almost from the ground. Forced to cruise low, he finally arrived over Manistique. Flying so low that he was able to make his voice heard by people standing in front of the postoffice, he called "Where's the airport?" The spectators waved in the general direction of the place and he disappeared in the fog.

Word was sent out to the airport to watch for him and signal where he should land. The plane was heard zooming through the fog but he was unable to find the post. Finally the plane was heard on the edge of town and it made a landing on the paving near the Secore Cabins on the eastern edge of town. The landing was made without trouble or damage to the plane.

City police, notified of the incident, appeared on the scene a few minutes after the landing and served as escort for the craft as it was taxied to the airport about two miles distant. On-coming cars were ordered to slow down and drive on the shoulder as the plane passed.

Just as the plane left the road for the airport, along came a heavily loaded motor car conveyor. This was a fortunate turn because the shoulder on the highway was far too soft to permit the passing of such a heavy vehicle.

The gas supply on the plane was nearly exhausted.

Mackinac County
Homemakers Enjoy
Achievement Day

Mackinac County Homemakers held an Achievement Day program at the town hall at Rexton Thursday with all Homemakers clubs of the area represented.

A business meeting in the morning opened the program. This was followed by a dinner served by the Rexton and Trout Lake Homemakers.

Many beautiful garments and home furnishings were on display. Among the most outstanding of these was a miniature kitchen, exhibited by Mrs. Christie. The model was fully furnished, representing each phase of homemaking studied by the clubs during the year. This took in curtains, textile paintings, kitchen utensils, among them a double-edged paring knife and a carrot knife; spice racks, removable shelves, there was fancy stitching and sewed and knitted garments. Everything was made by Mrs. Curtis, except the dishes and the dolls.

At the afternoon session there was singing, games and a style show in which garments representing many periods, were worn. One garment worn at this revue was 250 years old.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Phyllis Klagstad, Ypsilanti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Klagstad, Manistique, and Paul Lambarth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Lambarth, Saline, which took place April 26 at the Martha Mary Chapel, Macon. The double ring ceremony was performed at an impressive candle light ceremony by Rev. Alvin Siemsen, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church.

The bride wore a white gown with white satin bodice, and lace skirt with a train. Her fingertip veil was fastened with white rosebuds and her bouquet was of white roses. The matron of honor was Mrs. James Moser, Bloomfield, Ind., sister of the groom, who wore a gown of dusty rose tulle and carried yellow daisies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Jack Towler, Whitaker, and Miss Opal Richardson, Ypsilanti, who wore gowns of light blue marquisette and carried bouquets of pink snapdragons with matching arrangements in their hair.

Robert Klagstad, brother of the bride, was best man, and the ushers were Kenneth Rogers and Rudolph Layher Jr., Saline. A reception was held following the ceremony at the Saline hotel, after which the couple left for a short trip. They will make their home at 211 North Washington street, Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Lambarth is a graduate of Manistique high school and Ferris Institute. She has been employed at the Ford Motor Company in Ypsilanti. Mr. Lambarth is a graduate of the Saline high school, and attended Cleary college, Port Huron Junior college, University of Detroit, and Youngstown Junior college, and at present is flight instructor with the Army Reserve at Owosso.

TROUT FISHING
IS STILL POORThompson Hatchery Has Delayed Stocking
Operations

"You may as well chalk this down as a backward trout season," says Stanley Shurt, manager of the fish hatchery at Thompson. Heavy rains have swollen all streams in the area and the muddy water makes angling uncertain to say the least.

The hatchery, which ordinarily stocks streams with trout of legal size at this time, has put off operations indefinitely. Activity at the rearing pond at Ackerman has also been delayed because of unfavorable conditions. Should weather conditions clear and remain fair for a period of about 10 days stocking of streams will begin.

There has been little fishing in the region since the season began, the best catches to date come from the trout lake area where there has been some lake fishing through the ice.

There is still much snow and some ice in the heavily timbered areas which is adding to high water conditions.

WILL SEEK TO
TRAP LAMPREYState To Act In Effort To Curb Menace To Fishing

Control of lamprey, those eel-like creatures that have been raising so much havoc with commercial fishing operations, will soon be inaugurated in this area.

Nature of operations has not as yet been divulged, but it is understood that the work will be along lines announced by the state department of conservation several months ago.

Dexter B. Reynolds Jr., has been assigned to supervise these operations and will operate from headquarters at the Thompson Fish Hatchery.

According to early announcement, ways and means of curbing the breeding of lamprey, have not as yet been fully defined upon as the problem is comparatively new. The primary phase of the problem will be to keep lamprey from entering streams tributary to Lake Michigan, where the lamprey, about this time of the year, migrate by the millions and spawn.

The eel trap at the Manistique Pulp and Paper company mill which for two seasons has caught great numbers of these creatures will be given a thorough check-over as to results.

BY JAY ARRELL

A few evenings ago, while mixing with a crowd where the conversation could lead to most anything, someone talked about singing; singing led to a discussion of "barbershop harmony," and this led someone to ask why it was called "barbershop" instead of "lavern" or "street corner" music.

Two barbers in the crowd were as much in the dark as anyone else. One of them said he had never heard any vocalizing in any shop in which he had worked. In fact, he had his doubts that anything of the sort would be permitted. "Sharp razors and sour notes just don't mix," he said.

handbar moustaches were all the go, begged to differ. "There used to be a lot of singing in our shop in the early days and some of it was pretty good," he said, but qualified the assertion with the explanation that this singing didn't happen during business hours. It was only in the evening when the last customer had been shaved, the curtains drawn and the "Union Jack" put to work.

"And what was the Union Jack?" we asked. His look indicated that he had his doubts that we knew anything at all. "Didn't you ever hear of the Union Jack," he asked incredulously. We confessed our ignorance. "Well sir," he explained, "the Union Jack" was a specially built bucket. An old time tinsmith made it. It held five gallons and Old Oscar, when he made it, must have wanted to give it a finishing touch. Anyway he painted it red, white and blue."

"Oh boy, it was some growler!" said the old timer. "And oh the way we used to sing 'After the Ball Was Over' and 'While the Wedding Bells Were Ringing' after it had made the rounds three or four times. We always kept a jar of butter handy and greased the pail's insides before we sent it out to Patsy Maacks or Matt Schneider's."

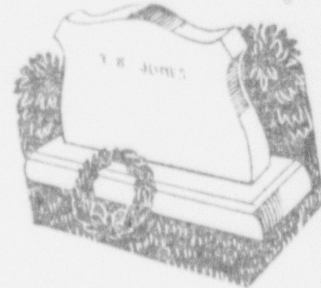

"What you do that for?" we asked, and the Old Timer gave us another scornful look. "Why, that keeps it from foaming," he answered. "No foam—more beer, see? Gosh, we'd clip in a nickel apiece and get the old 'Union Jack' loaded to the rim. Mmmmm-mmmmm! That was the good old days."

The Old Timer's discourse, we think you will agree, was interesting, but it shed very little light on the reason why barbershop quartets are so named. And though not wishing to be too critical we cannot agree with his idea that frequent trips of the Union Jack to the nearby saloon produced harmony. Beer music, past a certain stage, isn't music at all—by any standard.

Back home, Old Jake Greasel ran a place called "Der Deutche Dorf." It had a very ornate front with stained windows that were almost like those found in a church except instead of lambs and saints etc., there were little long whiskered elves with peaked caps and shoes. There were two entrances to the place. Over one entrance was pictured a lyre; over the other was a frog. The significance of the two was never explained, but there was a standing joke about them in the community to the effect that "when you entered Jake Greasel's place you sang and when you left it you croaked."

The number of ton-miles of freight moved per capita over railroads in the United States rose from 285 in 1867 to 1,863 in 1900 and a high point of 5,341 in 1944.

Lions Club Spring Boxing Show To Be Presented Monday Night

22-BOUT CARD
STARTS AT 7:15

Top-Notch Scrappers
From 6 U. P. Fight
Centers To Mix

The Escanaba club's annual spring boxing show, combined this year with the city recreation department's Silver Gloves tournament, will be presented Monday night, May 5, at the junior high school gymnasium. The double-header boxing program will get under way at 7:15 with the opening bout in the Silver Gloves division, which embraces amateur boxers under the age of 16. The second phase of the program, the Lions club's senior boxers show, will start at 8:30.

LIONS REPORT AT 9 A. M.

Lions club members who served on Golden Gloves committees in February will serve in corresponding jobs for Monday's show. Lions members are advised to report at nine o'clock this morning to complete the job of erecting the ring and installing bleachers. Members of the ticket and usher committees are particularly advised to report early Monday evening. Ticket sales at the door will begin at 6:15 p. m. There will be no meeting of the Lions club Monday night.

Boxing fans are advised to come early in order to see as many bouts in the junior division as possible. There will be from 12 to 16 bouts in the junior division, including lads from Escanaba, Munising, Manistique and Marinette.

The junior division bouts will be from one to three rounds each, varying with the ages of the contestants. The rounds will be one minute in length.

Seniors Go 3 Rounds. The senior boxers will all fight three round matches, except the windup in which Don Dougherty of Manistique and John Strophich of Escanaba will meet in a five round battle. The rounds in the senior division will be two minutes.

The advance ticket sale of reserved ringside chairs indicates a large attendance at the boxing program. However, only 350 ringside seats were placed on sale, the remainder of the house will be sold on a general admission, unreserved basis. There will be more than 1,000 general admission seats available on the main floor and the two balconies.

No reserved section has been established for students, who will be permitted to sit in any of the general sections.

The exact number of bouts in the senior division of the show will not be determined until the boys weigh in late Monday afternoon, but there will be a minimum of ten bouts and possibly more. Entries in this division include boxers from Manistique, Escanaba, Marquette, Marinette and Negaunee.

Little Vs. Hilton. In addition to the Strophich-Dougherty windup, the card will include a number of classy bouts featuring better known boxers of the area. Don Little, Escanaba redheaded lightweight, will probably be paired with Frank Hilton, Manistique colored boy, a ring veteran.

Other tentative pairings, subject to possible revision after the weigh-in, include Jim Piche, Escanaba vs. Ray Francis, Manistique; Charles Larson, Escanaba vs. Ted Libick, Manistique; Rodney Crawford, Manistique vs. Bob Quinn, Marquette; John Barr, Jr. Bark River vs. Eljah Peterson, Bark River; Pat LaFleur, Manistique vs. Eugene Marteau, Negaunee; Cletus Chartier, Manistique vs. Russell Rodda, Negaunee; Jim LaCrosse, Escanaba vs. Bill Sheldon, Marquette.

Sharkey On Hand. A number of other lads from Manistique, Marquette and Escanaba also will be paired after their proper weight classifications are determined. Leonard Sherkey, popular Indian boxer, also will be on hand in the hope of landing a pairing on the card.

All boxers, including the Silver Gloves lads, are advised to report at the junior high school gymnasium at five o'clock Monday afternoon for physical examinations and weigh-in.

Officials for the bouts will be Miles Betts, Marquette, referee; George Hurley, Marquette, and George Greenholm, Escanaba, judges; Art Goulais, announcer; Bill Puckelwartz, Dick Schram and Jim Rouman, timekeepers.

Among the local juniors who will be paired in the Silver Gloves and the tentative matches follow: Richard Pierce vs. Robert Pierce, at 45 lbs.; Mickey Rooney vs. Robert Gasman at 70 pounds; Charles Bennett vs. Richard Cander Wille at 50 lbs.; Wayne LaFave vs. Douglas Bennett at 60 lbs.; James King vs. Gerald McMartin at 70 lbs.; Albert Swanson vs. Francis Champney at 65 lbs.; Roger Schel vs. Robert Rademacher at 89 lbs.; Kenneth Swanson vs. Lloyd Brazeau at 85 lbs.; John Rademacher vs. Charles Olsen at 145 lbs.; Robert Tupper vs. Duane Brown at 130 lbs.; Larry Steib vs. Howard Perron at 150 lbs.

Thirty Delta county bowlers finished in the money in the Upper Peninsula bowling tournament recently concluded at Wakefield. A $4,010 melon was sliced in the 1947 meet. This represents the amount of money taken in entry fees. Hansen & Jensen's eleven in the five-man was good for $45. R. Wahowiak and Harry Gafner pulled down $14 for 21st in doubles. August Gafner (the big money winner) split $7.40 with H. Meyers for 37th in doubles, and the Gladstone duo of M. Erickson and F. Sirola came through with $4 for placing 55th in doubles.

Singles prizes went all the way down to a seven-way tie for 98th place which was occupied by B. Skellenger, Gladstone, reported to

TROUT HURLS TIGES TO WIN

Dizzy Gives Five Hits
As Detroit Sweeps
Series With A's

Detroit, May 3 (P)—Taking their second one-run decision in two days, the Detroit Tigers swept a two-game series from the determined Philadelphia Athletics with a 2 to 1 victory today back of Paul (Dizzy) Trout's five-hit pitching.

Russ Christopher, who relieved Bob Savage in the eighth and pitched only one inning, was the loser as Dick Wakefield slammed a 435-foot triple and came all the way in to score when Shortstop Eddie Joost bobbled the relay.

Detroit bunched three straight hits off Savage in the fourth for its first run and Trout had a two-hit shutout until the eighth when Barney McCosky doubled and scored the tying run on Pinch-hitter Ray Poole's single.

St. Louis, May 3 (P)—The Washington Senators overcame a four-run deficit by scoring five runs off Sam Zoldak in the seventh and eighth innings to edge out the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4, today.

Heino got $6.30 for a 572 that netted him a 54th place. Harry Gafner had No. 53 slot all to himself at $73 ($6.50), and W. Vandeweghe and A. Gafner collected $24 and $32 for fifth and third respectively, in singles. To this, August added $20 for third place in the all-events on a commendable 1,784 count. Two Gladstone teams, Al Ray and Arcadia Inn, earned $30 and $25, respectively, for 1st and 3rd in the booster team event. Another Gladstone quietest, the Van Mills, picked up $14 for fifth among the boosters.

Alton S. Kircher, formerly of Gladstone, one of Michigan State's best all-around athletes, is assistant coach in all seasonal sports on the Spartan campus. He is successfully plugging intercollegiate sports at MSC. Kircher coached at Gravenet (Marquette) before he went to East Lansing. While at Trout Creek in 1934, he played pro football with a Gogebic range team.

Bill Mikulich, of the Traunik tennis-playing Mikuliches, is captain of the University of Michigan tennis team and its No. 3 player. Bill reported for basketball at the Wolverine institution last December and quickly earned a varsity berth, alternating with Capt. Pete Elliott and Bob Harrison at guard.

Les Etter, Michigan sports publicity director, reports that Mikulich is one of the most popular athletes on the Ann Arbor campus.

Wilbert Rasmussen, the 16-year-old Negaunee ski-jumping sensation, is a catcher on the Negaunee high school basketball team, which was scheduled to play the Escanaba Ekymos here Friday and the St. Joe parochials here yesterday. Both games were postponed because of wet grounds.

Rasmussen is an all-around minor athlete. His national reputation rests on his ski-jumping talent. He not only holds the Ishpeming hill record of 250 feet but, more important to him, the National and Central U. S. Ski association Class C titles as well.

He's a modest, hard-working athlete. The kind coaches dream about.

Harold Otterbach, husky ex-Memphis high griddler, will be one of the tackles on the "Army" team at the University of Wisconsin's spring "Army-Navy" game. Otterbach was a sub last year but got his Badger grid letter.

Note to Bill Puckelwartz, who is busy drumming up interest in the first Hiawathaland Open Tennis tournament to be held in conjunction with the festival July 3-6: Bobby Riggs and Frank Kovacs, Nos. 1 and 2 ranking professional players in the nation, are playing an exhibition in Green Bay next Thursday. Not that Riggs and Kovacs will be here, but their presence this far north indicates a mounting interest in the game in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan.

Tennis needs a shot in the arm up here.

Incidentally, 49-year-old, Jean Borotra, France's Bounding Basque, the d'Artagnan of France's famed "four musketeers" during the Bill Tilden era, says the U. S. will rule world tennis for at least five years. So saving the world around and beat Billy Talbot.

But Talbot is not quite Jack Kramer. Ted Schroeder or Bob Falkenberg.

PLALANX 2ND; LATE GETAWAY

Faultless 3rd; Picture Decides Winner In Thrilling Race

BY SID FEDER

Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., May 3 (P)—The colt who is "living on borrowed time"—husky, jet-propelled Jet Pilot—won the Kentucky Derby today just as his backers said he would, out in front and flying, and one of the greatest throngs in sports history saw him do it.

They said the "cosmetics kid," a sturdy chestnut front-runner from the Maine Chance barn of Elizabeth Graham, the Elizabeth Arden of the cosmetic world, would take to the off-footing of the Churchill Downs strip like he takes to his oats; that he'd come sizzling out of the gate and the rest of this field of 13 would never catch him. And that's exactly how it happened in this 73rd and biggest of all berbies.

Not Quite That Easy. But it wasn't just as easy as that for this Kentucky-born speed artist, because coming at him at the finish were the "gentleman from Virginia" stretch-sizzling Phalanx, and Faultless, the rangy hope of Trainer Ben Jones. And when they laid their noses on the wire, it was so close that no one in the vast, roaring throng estimated by Col. Matt Winn, the 86-year mastermind of this most famous of American races, at between 115,000 and 120,000, could "split them apart" until the photo-finish picture had been developed.

Then, the picture told the story. The Pilot—and it's a name that fits like his racing pants because he steered all the rest of them home—had managed to last by a bare head of roses and the pot of gold that this time amounted to $92,160 out of a gross of $120,212. Straining, stretching, struggling to make it under heady Eddie Arcaro—who was shooting at his fourth Derby victory which would have given him the all-time riding record—Phalanx just missed. He came from far back—last out of the gate and still tenth after half a mile he came from far back but the best he could get was second money—a $10,000 chunk—by showing up another short head in front of Faultless, who was completely untied in off footing but proved today, as he closed from sixth, that wet or dry, he could romp home.

Win In First Start
Sitting up on the Pilot, steering him like a rocket all the way, was Eric Guerin a fighting little man from the Bayou country, making his start in the Derby a winning one. Slim-faced, tall for a jockey, the class 23-year-old booter from Maringouin, La., got the chance to ride the husky chestnut only a few days ago, because Mrs. Graham asked his contract employer to release him from a previous engagement and give him the opportunity in the run for the roses.

He had been on the Pilot only twice before—last June, at Belmont, when he won the National Stallion Stakes and in October, again at Belmont, when he finished third in the Champagne. But apparently he'd learned about the colt as though he were reading it a book, because he never had to do more than hand-ride today. He could have thrown his hat away.

Bears To Resume Baseball Practice At Diamond Today

If weather conditions permit, the Escanaba Bears baseball team will practice again at 2:30 this afternoon at the City diamond, Manager John Schwalbach announced. The Bears will open their season next Sunday in a non-league exhibition game with Bark River of the Cloverland league. The following week the Bears will open their Rainbow league schedule, meeting Chatham at the local diamond.

Manager Schwalbach reported yesterday that there is no softball ban in force with the Escanaba Bears and that softball players desiring to play baseball are invited to try out with the Bears. The only rule invoked is that all players, including softball men, agree to be available for the Sunday games, both home and away.

City Softball Play Opens With Doubleheader May 11

A doubleheader at Escanaba's lighted field between two teams from the American league and two teams from the National league—to be drawn from a hat—will feature the formal opening of the Escanaba Softball association season next Sunday evening.

A prominent city official, as yet unnamed, will toss out the first ball, in true President Truman tradition, and appropriate ceremonies will be held between the two games.

ST. JOE TILT POSTPONED

The game between the St. Joe parochial school and Negaunee Miners, scheduled to hold at city diamond yesterday afternoon was postponed because of wet grounds.

Important Softball Meeting Thursday

Officers, managers, captains, players, umpires and all interested fans will meet in the city council chambers at 8 next Thursday night to hold the official drawings for season's play in the Escanaba Softball association, Paul Vardigan announced yesterday.

Drawings for teams to participate in the opening day program Sunday evening, May 11, also will be held. Other items on the agenda are: Vote on limiting teams to two pitchers, vote on each team playing one or two games at Flat Rock, drawing for turn on lighted field for exhibition game and acceptance of applications for lighted field for exhibition games.
